

1-3 John, Jude

Nov. 27-Dec. 3

- Analogy from Hank Smith

- First three - Synoptic - Syn(same - synonym, or symphony) + optic(view)
- Matthew - sitting in the orchestra section, focuses on the sayings, stands up and says: did you hear what he just said, links it back to elements of the Old Testament that Jesus is fulfilling
- Mark - from the balcony, maybe arrived a little late, maybe has a harder time hearing and focuses mostly on what was done
- Luke - he's a Gentile, a convert and also a physician - sitting in the orchestra section - he gives a very balanced view about Jesus being a healer and blessing people who are often on the margins of their society
- John - seems to be right on the stage with Jesus, giving us a backstage pass. Close and personal

Imagine how much poorer we would be in our knowledge of God and Jesus Christ, if any one of these books was missing.

Instead of looking for discrepancies, instead look for: what am I learning from their unique voice?

Christology - the study of the life of Christ

High -> John - those things that emphasize those things that emphasize his godliness.

Jesus doesn't show much weakness, if any at all in the gospel of John. Nobody ever carries his cross for him, he doesn't fall to the ground in Gethsemane, he doesn't need anyone to do anything for him.

Aspirational - I want to be more like Him and I aspire to that stretch goal - I want that as well.

Matthew/Luke

Lowest -> Mark - emphasizes more of his humanity,

More of his mortality, more of the things that you and I can really relate to. All of his stories and movements are among the poor, common people. Mark is going to immerse into those relatable, human parts of Jesus.

Relatable - I want to be around Him.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:1

New Testament | KJV

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life.

1 John 1:1

New Testament | KJV

For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us.

1 John 1:2

New Testament | KJV

That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:3

New Testament | KJV

2:17 / 3:14-15 / 5:12

17 And the world passeth away,
and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life
abiding in him.

12 He that hath the Son hath life;
and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

20 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

9 Whosoever is born of God doth not continueth in sin; for the Spirit of God remaineth in him; and he cannot continue in sin, because he is born of God, having received that holy Spirit of promise

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

4:18

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.
