Come, Follow Me—For Home and Church: Book of Mormon 2024

Come Follow Me, 2024

The aim of all gospel learning and teaching is to deepen our conversion and help us become more like Jesus Christ. For this reason, when we study the gospel, we're not just looking for new information; we want to become a "new creature" (2 Corinthians 5:17). This means relying on Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ to help us change our hearts, our views, our actions, and our very natures.

THE TESTIMONY OF THE PROPHET JOSEPH SMITH

The Prophet Joseph Smith's own words about the coming forth of the Book of Mormon are:
"On the evening of the . . . twenty-first of September [1823] . . . I betook myself to prayer and supplication to Almighty God. . . .
"While I was thus in the act of calling upon God, . . . I discovered a light appearing in my room, which continued to increase until the room was brighter than at noonday, when immediately a personage appeared at my bedside, standing in the air, for his feet did not touch the floor.
He had on a loose robe of most exquisite whiteness. It was a whiteness of which I had never seen; nor do I believe that any earthly robe could be made to appear so exceedingly white and brilliant. His face was like fine flax, and his arms also, a little above the wrist; so, also, were his legs, a little above the ankles. His head and hair were also bare. I could discover that he had no other clothing on but only was his robe exceedingly white, but his whole person was glorious beyond description, and his countenance truly like lightning.
I felt his person. When I first looked upon him, I was afraid; but he called me by name, and said unto me that I need not be afraid, for the presence of God to me, and said unto me that he was the Father of my

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Mormon is a record of the Bible. It is a record of the Americas and contains the prophecy and revelation quoted and abridged by record gives an account of the Nephites and the Lamanites, and the Jaredites. After the Lord confounded the Lamanites, and the Indians.

The crowning event record the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ in the resurrection. It is a record of the

A BRIEF EXPLANATION ABOUT THE BOOK OF MORMON

The Book of Mormon is a sacred record of peoples in ancient America and compiled include the following:
1. The Plates of Nephi, which were of two kinds: the small plates and the large plates. The small plates were more particularly devoted to spiritual matters and the ministry and teachings of the prophets, while the large plates were occupied mostly by a secular history of the peoples concerned included items of major spiritual importance.
2. The Plates of Mormon, which consist of an abridgment by Mormon from the large plates of Nephi, with many commentaries. These plates also contained a continuation of the history by Mormon and additions by his son Moroni.
3. The Plates of Ether, which present a history of the Jaredites. This record was abridged by Moroni, who inserted comments of his own and incorporated the record with the general history under the title "Book of Ether."
The Plates of Brass brought by the people of Lehi from Jerusalem in the beginning, . . . down to the commencement of the reign of these kings, and also the prophecies of the holy prophets, . . . which were written upon the plates, and which were the principal parts of their principal prophecies, appear in the Book of Mormon.

THE TESTIMONY OF THREE WITNESSES

Be it known unto all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people, unto whom this work shall come: That we, through the grace of God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, have seen the plates which contain this record, and which is a record of the people of Jared, who came from the tower of Babel, and also of the people of Nephi, and also of the Lamanites, their brethren, and also of the power of God, and of the power of man. And we also testify which hath been spoken. And we also know that they have been translated by the gift and power of God, and not of man. And we also testify before we know of a surety that the work is true. And we also testify that we have seen the engravings which are upon the plates; and they have been shown unto us by the power of God, and we beheld and heard words with words of soberness, that an angel of God came down from heaven, and he brought and laid before our eyes, that we beheld and read the plates, and the engravings thereon; and we know that it is by the power of God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, that we should bear record that these things are true. And it is marvelous in our eyes, nevertheless, the voice of the Lord commanded us that we should bear testimony of these things. And we know that if we are faithful in the testimony of the blood of all men, and shall dwell with him in the judgment-seat of Christ, and shall dwell with him in the Holy Ghost, which is one God. Amen.

THE TESTIMONY OF EIGHT WITNESSES

Be it known unto all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people, unto whom this work shall come: That Joseph Smith, Jun., the translator of this work, has shown unto us the plates of which hath been spoken, which we have seen and handled with our hands; and we also saw the engravings thereon, all of which have the appearance of ancient work, and of curious workmanship. And this we bear record with words of soberness, that the said Smith has shown unto us, for we have seen and handled the plates, and we know of a surety that the said Smith has got the plates of which hath been spoken. And we give our names unto the world, to witness unto the world that which we have seen. And we lie not, God bearing witness.

PLATES OF NEPHI.

Wherefore, it is an abridgment of the record of the people of Nephi, and also of the Lamanites; written to the Lamanites, who are a remnant of the house of Israel; and also to Jew and Gentile; written by way of commandment, and also by the spirit of prophecy and of revelation. Written, and sealed up, and hid up unto the Lord, that they might not be destroyed; to come forth by the gift and power of God unto the interpretation thereof; sealed by the hand of Moroni, and hid up unto the Lord, to come forth in due time by the way of Gentile; the interpretation thereof by the gift of God:

An abridgment taken from the book of Ether: also, which is a record of the people of Jared; who were scattered at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people, when they were building a tower to get to heaven: which is to shew unto the remnant of the house of Israel what great things the Lord hath done for their fathers; and that they may know the covenants of the Lord, that they are not cast off forever; and also to the convincing of the Jew and Gentile that JESUS is the CHRIST, the ETERNAL GOD, manifesting himself unto all nations. And now if there are faults, they are the mistakes of men; wherefore, condemn not the things of God, that ye may be found spotless at the judgment seat of CHRIST.

Introduction

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Mormon is a volume of holy scripture comparable to the Bible. It is a record of God's dealings with ancient inhabitants of the Americas and contains the fulness of the everlasting gospel.

The book was written by many ancient prophets by the spirit of prophecy and revelation. Their words, written on gold plates, were quoted and abridged by a prophet-historian named Mormon. The record gives an account of two great civilizations. One came from Jerusalem in 600 B.C. and afterward separated into two nations, known as the Nephites and the Lamanites. The other came much earlier when the Lord confounded the tongues at the Tower of Babel. This group is known as the Jaredites. After thousands of years, all were destroyed except the Lamanites, and they are among the ancestors of the American Indians.

The crowning event recorded in the Book of Mormon is the personal ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ among the Nephites soon after His resurrection. It puts forth the doctrines of the gospel, outlines the plan of salvation, and tells men what they must do to gain peace in this life and eternal salvation in the life to come.

After Mormon completed his writings, he delivered the account to his son Moroni, who added a few words of his own and hid up the plates in the Hill Cumorah. On September 21, 1823, the same Moroni, then a glorified, resurrected being, appeared to the Prophet Joseph Smith and instructed him relative to the ancient record and its destined translation into the English language.

In due course the plates were delivered to Joseph Smith, who translated them by the gift and power of God. The record is now published in many languages as a new and additional witness that Jesus Christ is the Son of the living God and that all who will come unto Him and obey the laws and ordinances of His gospel may be saved.

Concerning this record the Prophet Joseph Smith said: "I told the brethren that the Book of Mormon was the most correct of any book on earth, and the keystone of our religion, and a man would get nearer to God by abiding by its precepts, than by any other book."

In addition to Joseph Smith, the Lord provided for eleven others to see the gold plates for themselves and to be special witnesses of the truth and divinity of the Book of Mormon. Their written testimonies are included herewith as "The Testimony of Three Witnesses" and "The Testimony of Eight Witnesses."

We invite all men everywhere to read the Book of Mormon, to ponder in their hearts the message it contains, and then to ask God, the Eternal Father, in the name of Christ if the book is true. Those who pursue this course and ask in faith will gain a testimony of its truth and divinity by the power of the Holy Ghost. (See Moroni 10:3–5.)

Those who gain this divine witness from the Holy Spirit will also come to know by the same power that Jesus Christ is the Savior of the world, that Joseph Smith is His revelator and prophet in these last days, and that The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is the Lord's kingdom once again established on the earth, preparatory to the Second Coming of the Messiah.

Nearer - 1828 Webster's dictionary:

- not far distant in place, time, or degree
- not distant in affection, support or assistance; present; ready; willing to aid.
- Intimate; united in close ties of affection or confidence; as a near friend.

Russell M. Nelson, Conference Report, Oct 2017

“The truths of the Book of Mormon have the power to heal, comfort, restore, suck, strengthen, console, and cheer our souls.

My dear brothers and sisters, I promise that as you prayerfully study the Book of Mormon every day, you will make better decisions every day.

I promise that as you Ponder what you study, the windows of heaven will open, and you will receive answers to your own questions and direction for your own life.

I promise that as you daily immerse yourself in the Book of Mormon, you can be immunized against the evils of the day...”

THE TESTIMONY OF THREE WITNESSES

Be it known unto all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people, unto whom this work shall come: That we, through the grace of God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, have seen the plates which contain this record, which is a record of the people of Nephi, and also of the Lamanites, their brethren, and also of the people of Jared, who came from the tower of which hath been spoken.

And we also know that they have been translated by the gift and power of God, for his voice hath declared it unto us; wherefore we know of a surety that the work is true.

And we also testify that we have seen the engravings which are upon the plates; and they have been shown unto us by the power of God, and not of man.

And we declare with words of soberness, that an angel of God came down from heaven, and he brought and laid before our eyes, that we beheld and saw the plates, and the engravings thereon; and we know that it is by the grace of God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, that we beheld and bear record that these things are true. And it is marvelous in our eyes.

Nevertheless, the voice of the Lord commanded us that we should bear record of it; wherefore, to be obedient unto the commandments of God, we bear testimony of these things.

And we know that if we are faithful in Christ, we shall rid our garments of the blood of all men, and be found spotless before the judgment-seat of Christ, and shall dwell with him eternally in the heavens.

And the honor be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, which is one God.

Amen.

"Jacob, I want you to remember what I say to you. I am a dying man, and what would it profit me to tell you a lie? I know," said he, "that this Book of Mormon was translated by the gift and power of God. My eyes saw, my ears heard, and my understanding was touched, and I know that whereof I testified is true. It was no dream, no vain imagination of the mind—it was real"

Jacob F. Gates in March 1912 Improvement Era publishes a recollection of his father, Jacob Gates. Jacob Gates, Sr. met with Oliver Cowdery in 1849, and shares this testimony:

"That I have never at any time denied that testimony or any part thereof, which has so long since been published with that Book, as one of the three witnesses. Those who know me best, well know that I have always adhered to that testimony. And that no man may be misled or doubt my present views in regard to the same, I do again affirm the truth of all my statements, as then made and published.

"'He that hath an ear to hear, let him hear'; it was no delusion! What is written is written, and he that readeth let him understand."

"David Whitmer Proclamation, 19 March 1881," quoted in Early Mormon Documents 5:69 - Quoted in "True to the Book of Mormon—The Whitmers," Ensign, Feb. 1989

On his death bed (1875), Harris said: "The Book of Mormon is no fake. I know what I know. I have seen what I have seen and I have heard what I have heard. I have seen the gold plates from which the Book of Mormon is written. An angel appeared to me and others and testified to the truthfulness of the record, and had I been willing to have perjured myself and sworn falsely to the testimony I now bear I could have been a rich man, but I could not have testified other than I have done and am now doing for these things are true."
