

The background of the image is a dramatic, high-contrast photograph of a stormy sea. Dark, heavy clouds loom over the horizon, while the water below is turbulent, with white-capped waves crashing and churning. The overall color palette is dominated by deep blues and greys, creating a sense of power and intensity.

The conditions that can break us are the same ones
that can make us.
Make us holy.

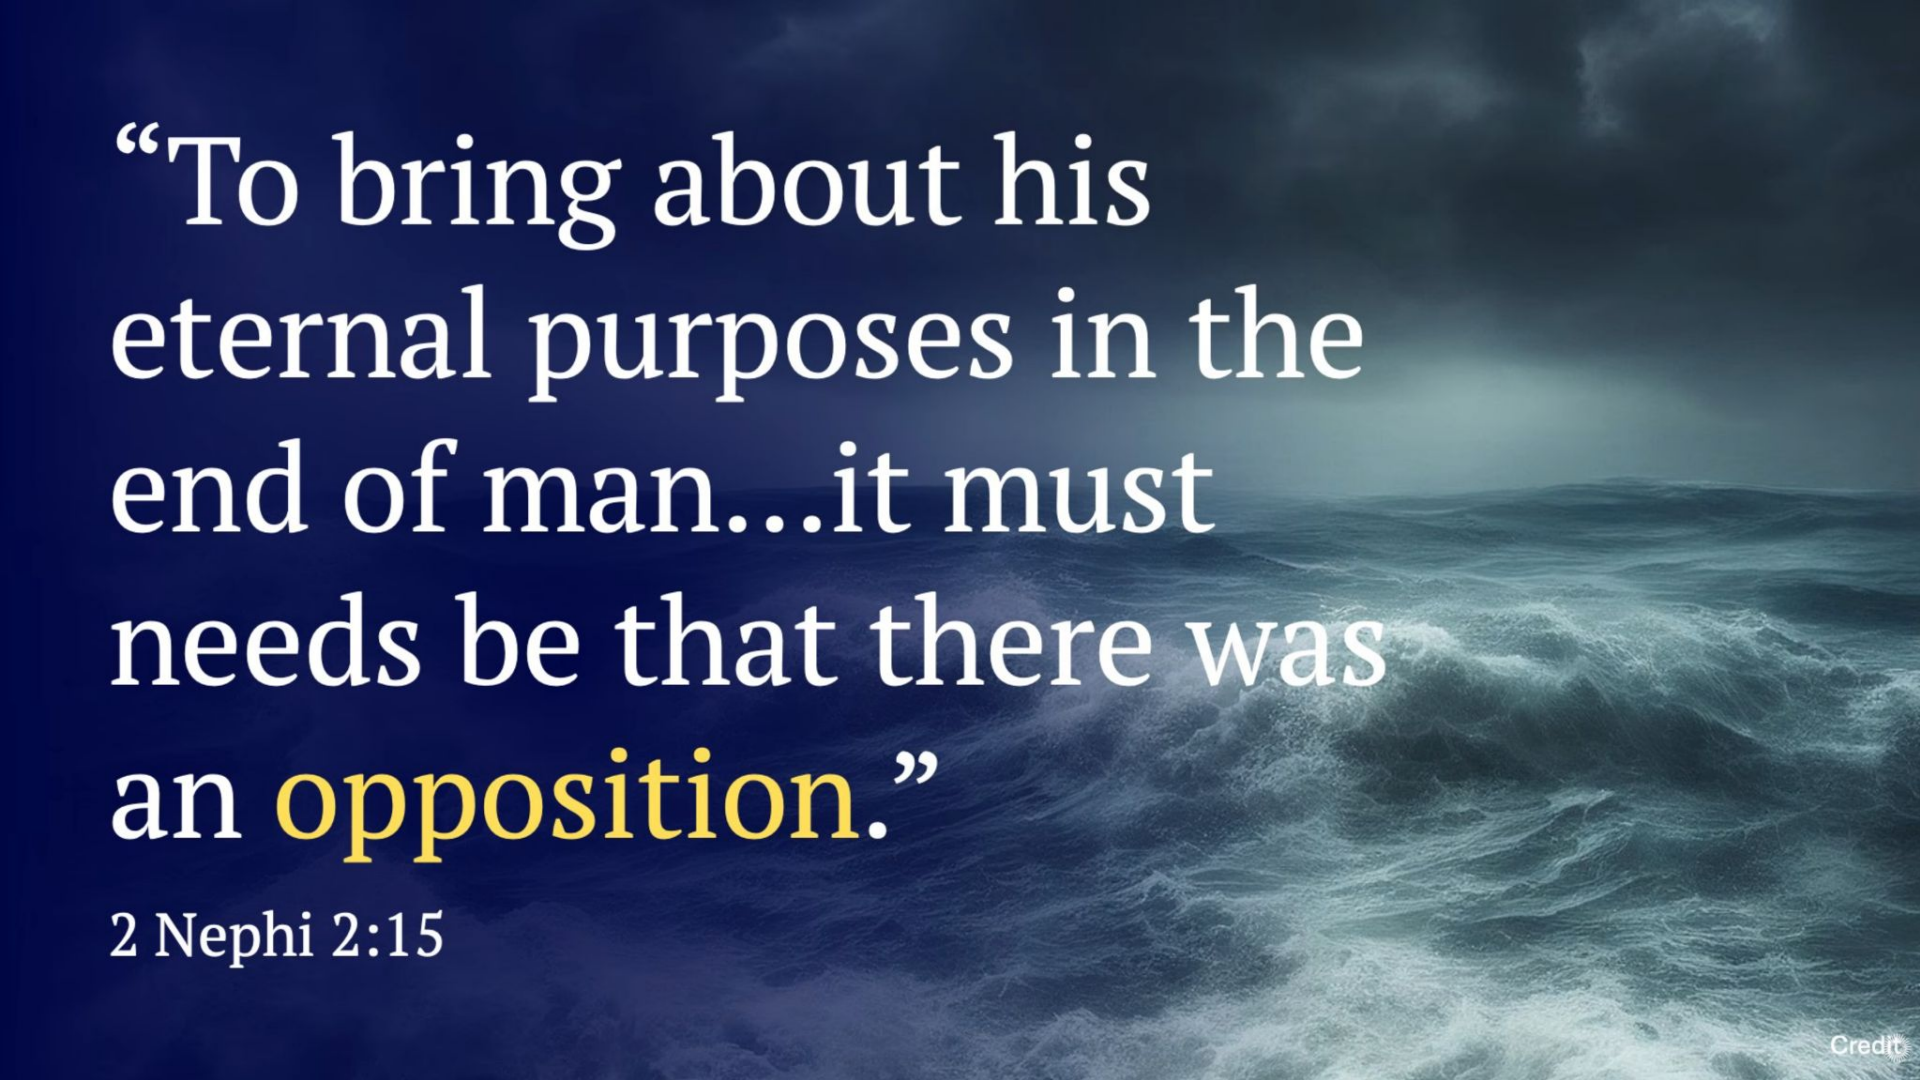

“Nine months after her passing, one of her sons had a remarkable experience in the temple. He learned by the power of the Holy Ghost that his mother had a message for him. She communicated with him, but not by vision or audible words. The following unmistakable message came into the son’s mind from his mother: ‘I want you to know that mortality works, and I want you to know that I now understand why everything happened [in my life] the way it did—and it is all OK.’”

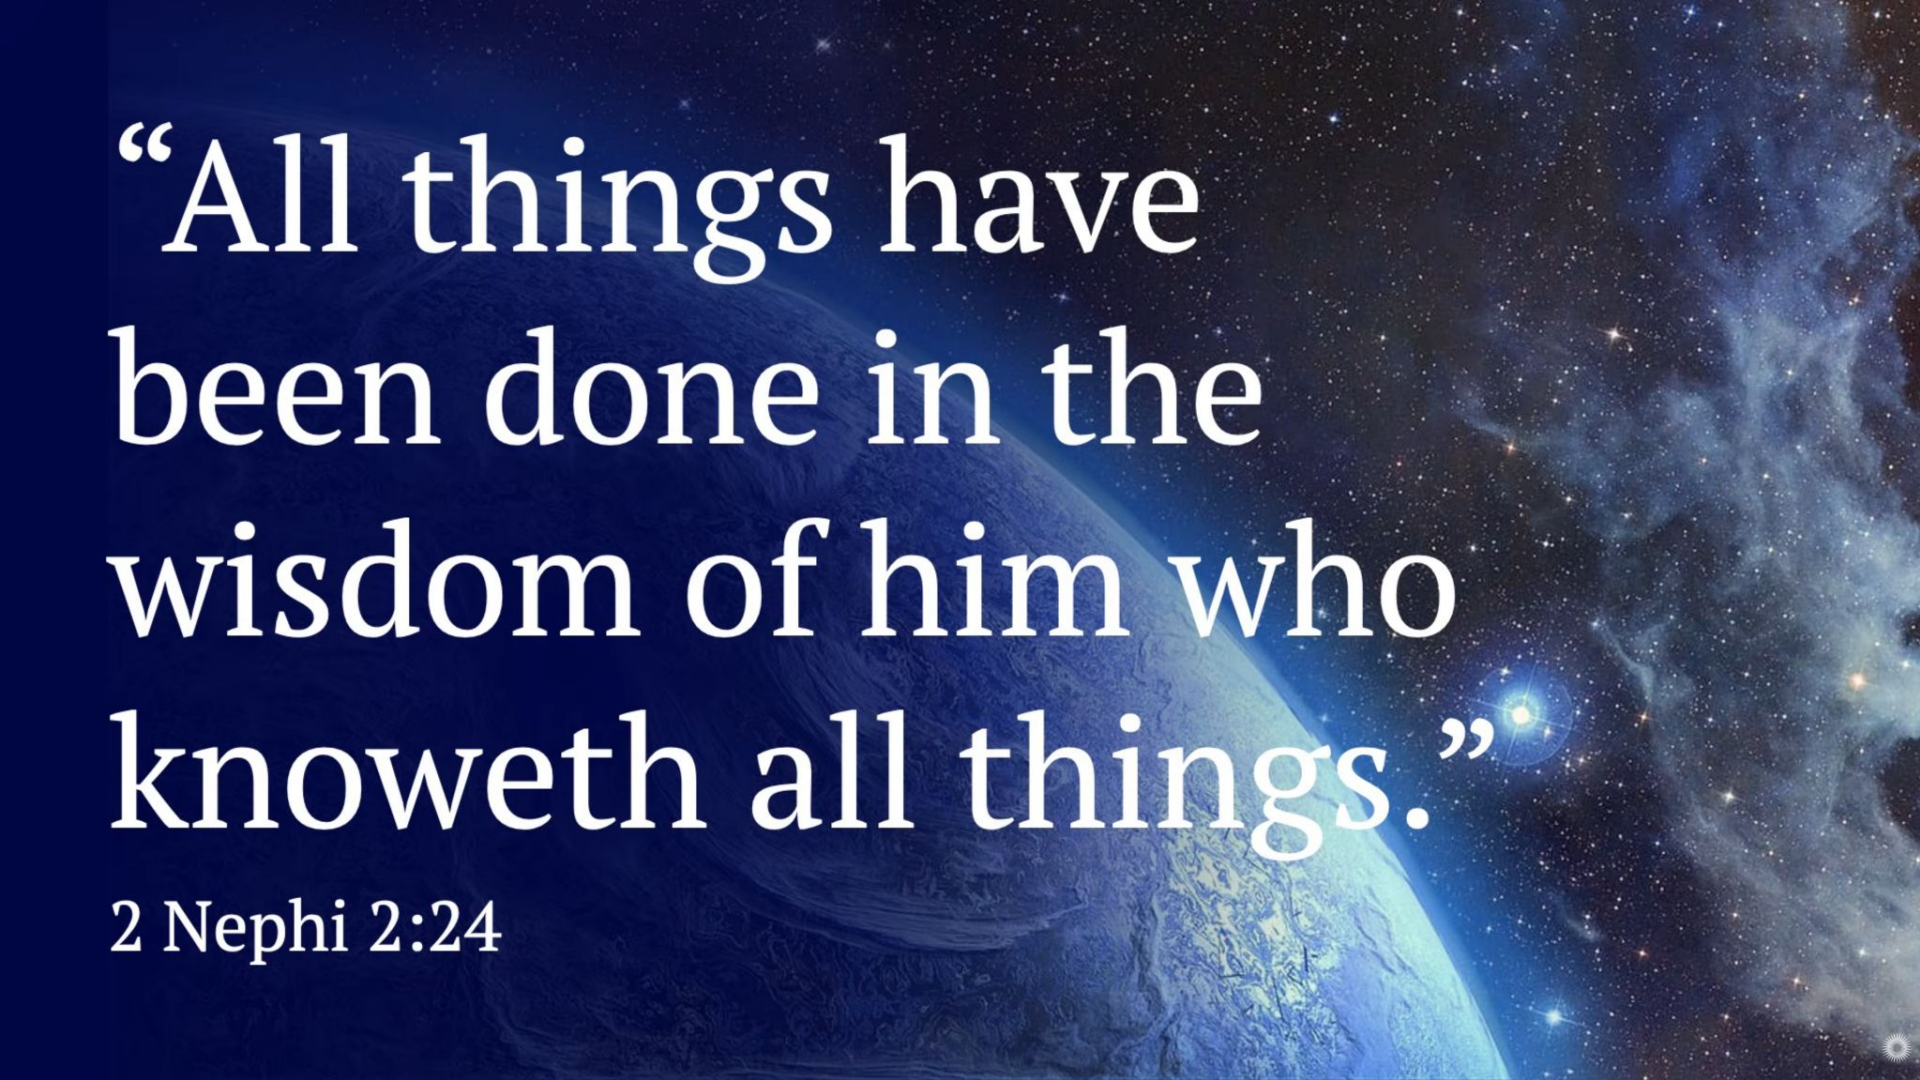

Elder Brook P. Hales
Liahona, November 2024

A dramatic background image of a stormy ocean with dark, heavy clouds and turbulent, white-capped waves crashing under a dark sky. The overall tone is somber and powerful.

“To bring about his eternal purposes in the end of man...it must
needs be that there was
an opposition.”

2 Nephi 2:15

“All things have been done in the
wisdom of him who
knoweth all things.”

2 Nephi 2:24

“Because of [Christ’s] Atonement, all that is unfair about this life
is resolved.”

Elder Quentin L. Cook,
Church News, Sept. 11, 2025

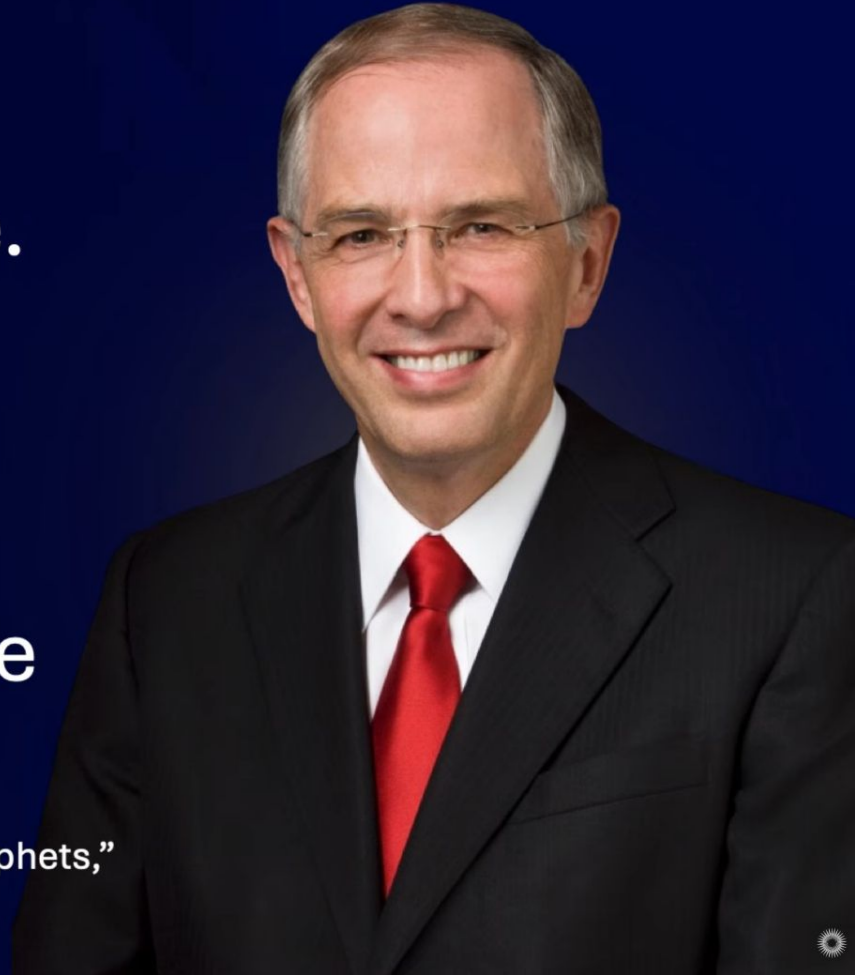

“Jesus Christ both understands unfairness and has the power to provide a remedy. Nothing compares to the unfairness He endured. It was not fair that He experienced all the pains and afflictions of mankind. It was not fair that He suffered for my sins and mistakes and for yours. But He chose to do so because of His love for us and for Heavenly Father. He understands perfectly what we are experiencing.”

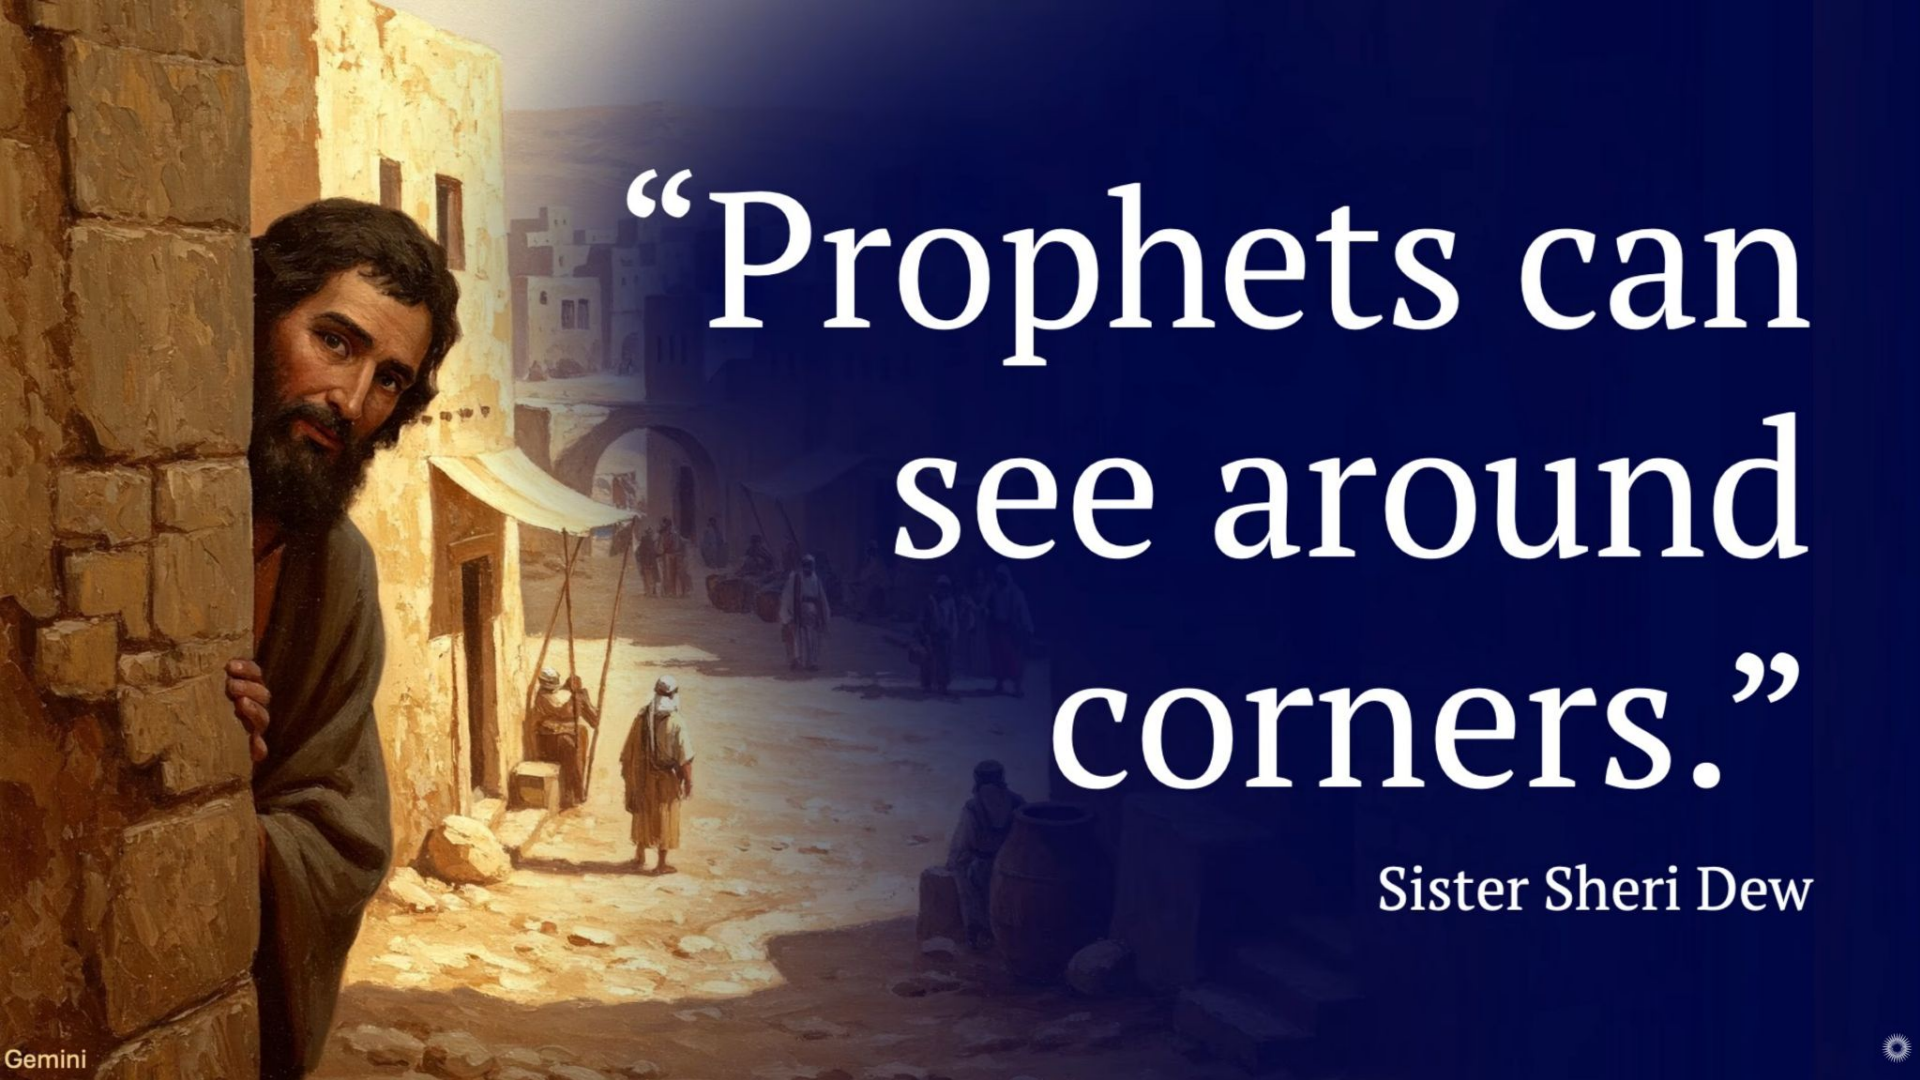

Elder Dale G. Renlund
Ensign, May 2021

“Spiritually, seers see the wider view. They see what we sometimes cannot see. Their words and counsel help us to see the larger view. If we heed their counsel, holding fast to the iron rod, we will be safe.”

Elder Neil L. Andersen, “Hold Fast to the Words of the Prophets,”
BYU Devotional

A man with a dark beard and hair, wearing a brown robe, is peering out from behind a rough stone wall on the left side of the frame. He is looking towards the viewer. The background is a dusty, sunlit street in an ancient setting, with several figures in traditional clothing walking or standing. The street is flanked by stone buildings, some with arched doorways. The overall scene is bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting a bright day. The right half of the image is overlaid with a dark blue gradient, which serves as a background for the text.

“Prophets can see around
corners.”

Sister Sheri Dew

“I...am but a lad, and
all the people hate
me; for I am slow of
speech; wherefore
am I thy servant?”

Moses 6:31

Enoch

“Oh, my Lord, I
am not eloquent...
but I am slow of
speech and of
tongue.”

Exodus 4:10, ESV

Moses

“Please, Lord, how can
I save Israel? Behold,
my clan is the weakest
in Manasseh, and I am
the least in my
father’s house.”

Judges 6:15, ESV

Gideon

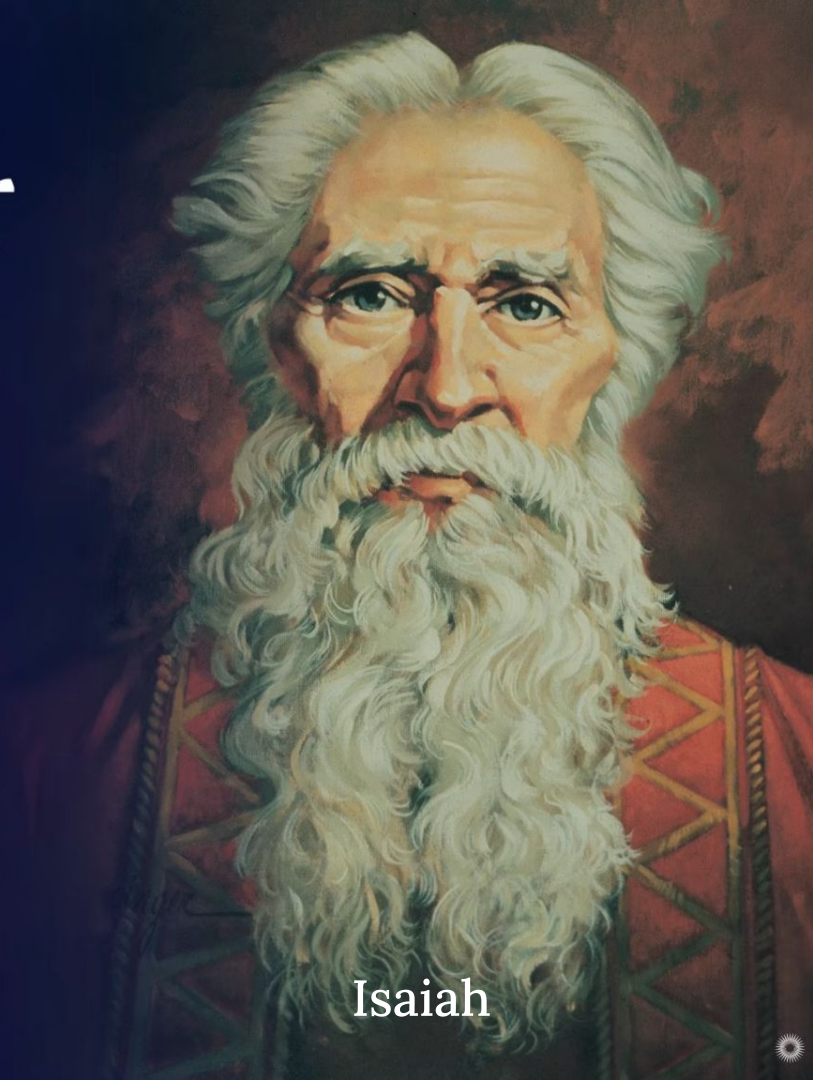

“I do not know
how to speak,
for I am only
a youth.”

Jeremiah 1:6, ESV

“Woe is me! For
I am lost; for I
am a man of
unclean lips.”

Isaiah 6:5, ESV

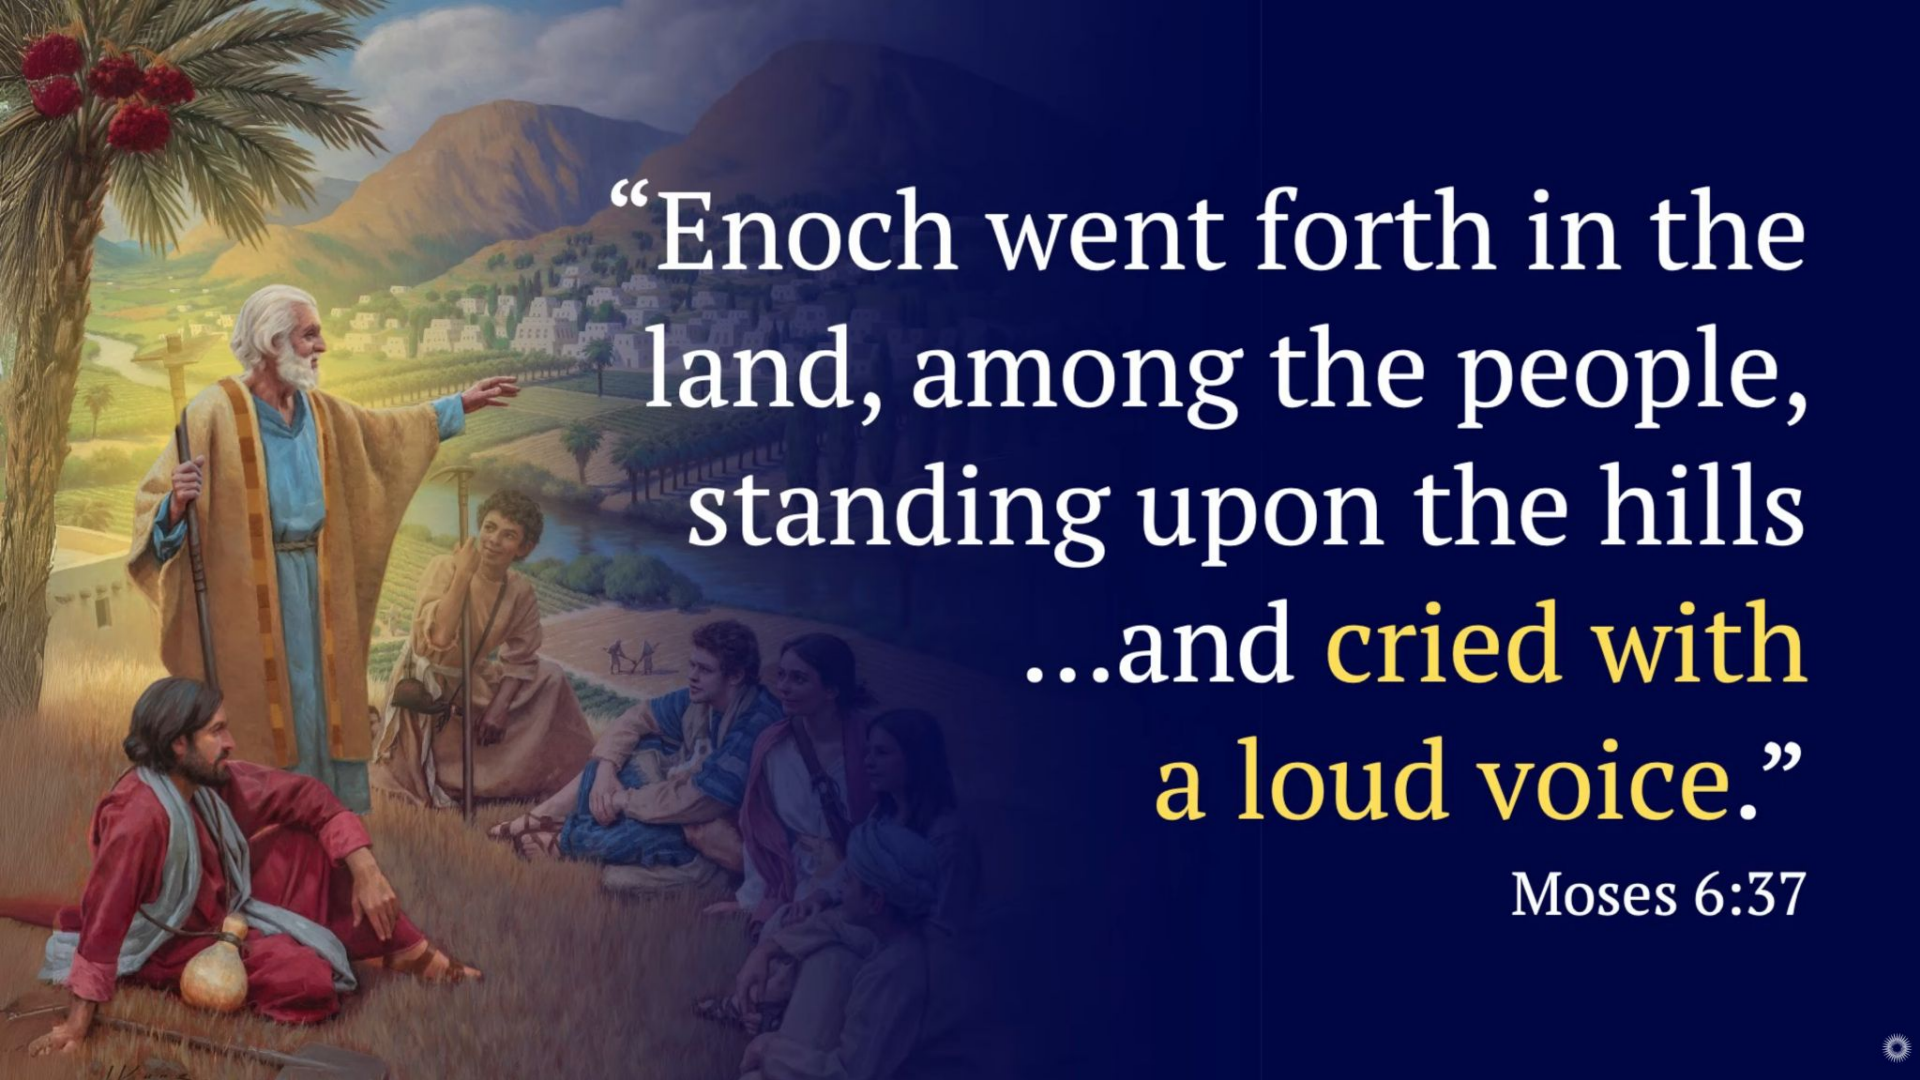

Isaiah

“Go forth and do as I have commanded thee... open thy mouth, and it shall be filled.”

Moses 6:32

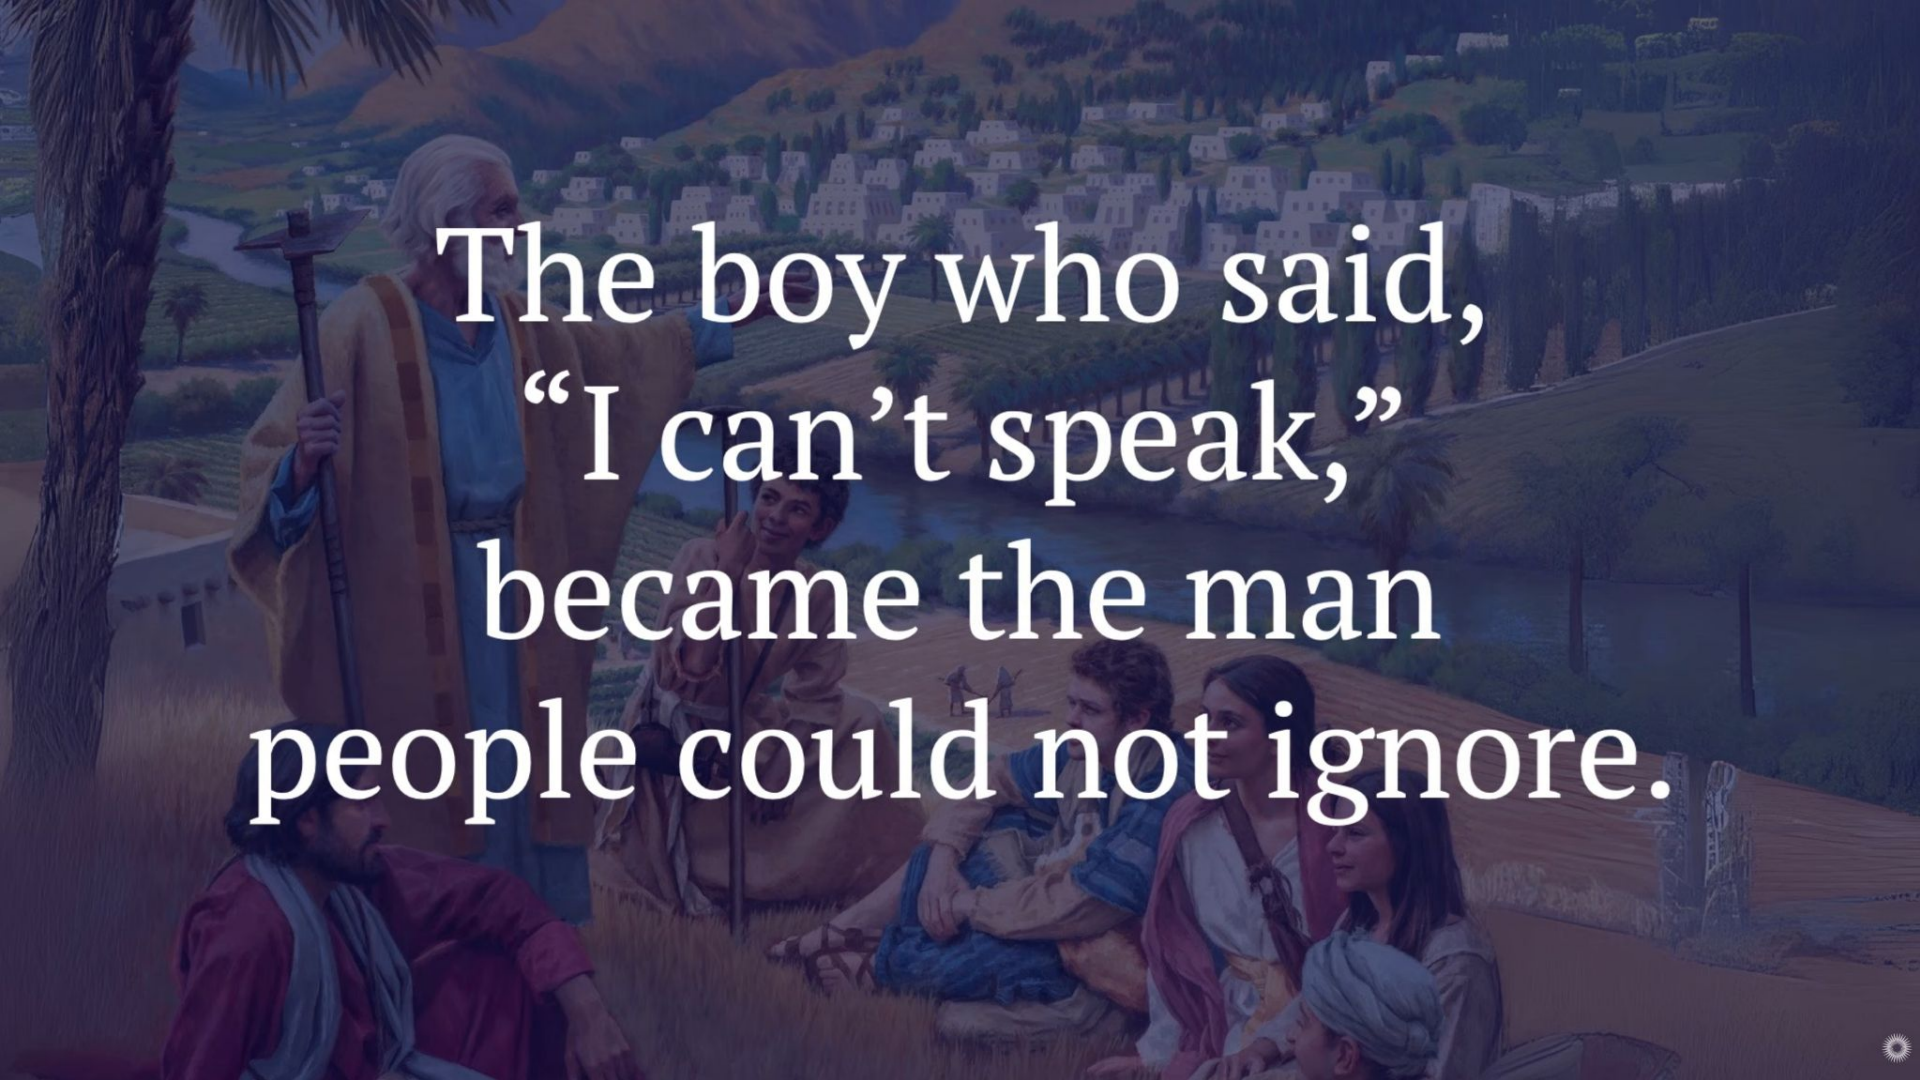

“Enoch went forth in the
land, among the people,
standing upon the hills
...and cried with
a loud voice.”

Moses 6:37

The background image is a painting of a biblical scene. An elderly man with white hair, wearing a blue tunic and a yellow cloak, stands on the left, holding a wooden staff. He is looking towards a group of people seated on the ground. The group includes a man in a brown tunic, a man in a blue and white striped tunic, a woman in a white tunic with a red shawl, and a child in a grey tunic. They are all looking at the elderly man. The setting is a landscape with rolling hills, a river, and a village in the distance. A large tree is on the left, and a small structure is visible in the background. The overall tone is somber and reflective.

The boy who said,
“I can’t speak,”
became the man
people could not ignore.

