Jerusalem becomes the capital of the United Monarchy of Israel

A painting by James Tissot depicting King David and his men celebrating. The scene is filled with men in traditional Middle Eastern attire, including turbans and robes. Many are holding large, round drums and dancing. The background shows palm trees and a bright, sunny sky. The overall mood is one of joy and triumph.

David and Abigail

David and Jonathan

“Choose a man and have him come down to me. If he is able to fight and kill me, we will become your subjects; but if I overcome him and kill him, you will become our subjects and serve us.”

1 Samuel 17:8–9, NIV

“[Goliath was] six cubits and a span.”
[about 9’9.”]

1 Samuel 17:4, KJV

“He wore a bronze helmet on his head and wore a coat of scale armor of bronze weighing [about 125 pounds.]

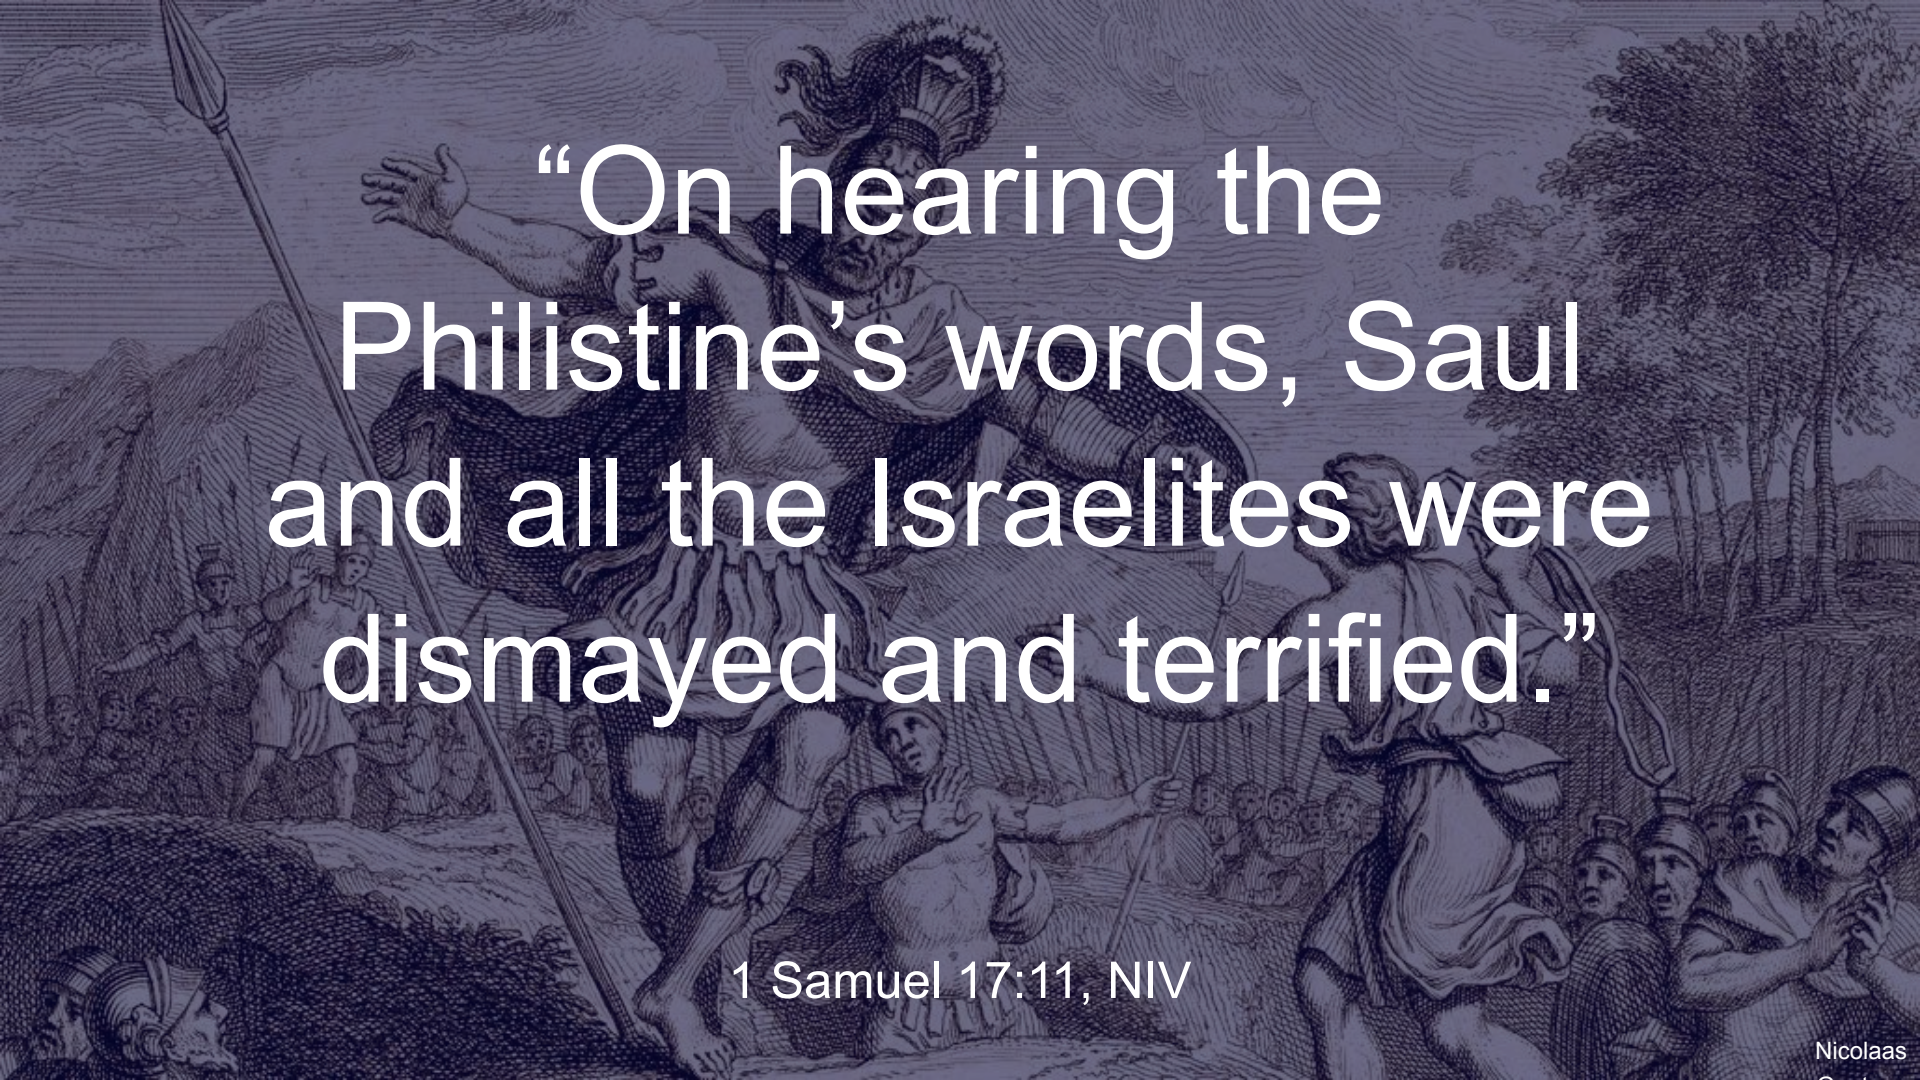

1 Samuel 17:5, NIV

“On his legs he wore bronze greaves, and a bronze javelin was slung on his back. His spear shaft was like a weaver’s rod, and its iron point weighed [about 15 pounds.]”

1 Samuel 17:5–7, NIV

“On hearing the Philistine’s words, Saul and all the Israelites were dismayed and terrified.”

1 Samuel 17:11, NIV

“[David was] the youngest...[of Jesse’s sons, a boy who] tended his father’s sheep.”

1 Samuel 17:14–15, NIV

“The LORD...will deliver me.” (1 Samuel 17:37, KJV)

“I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts.”

(1 Samuel 17:45, KJV)

“This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand.”

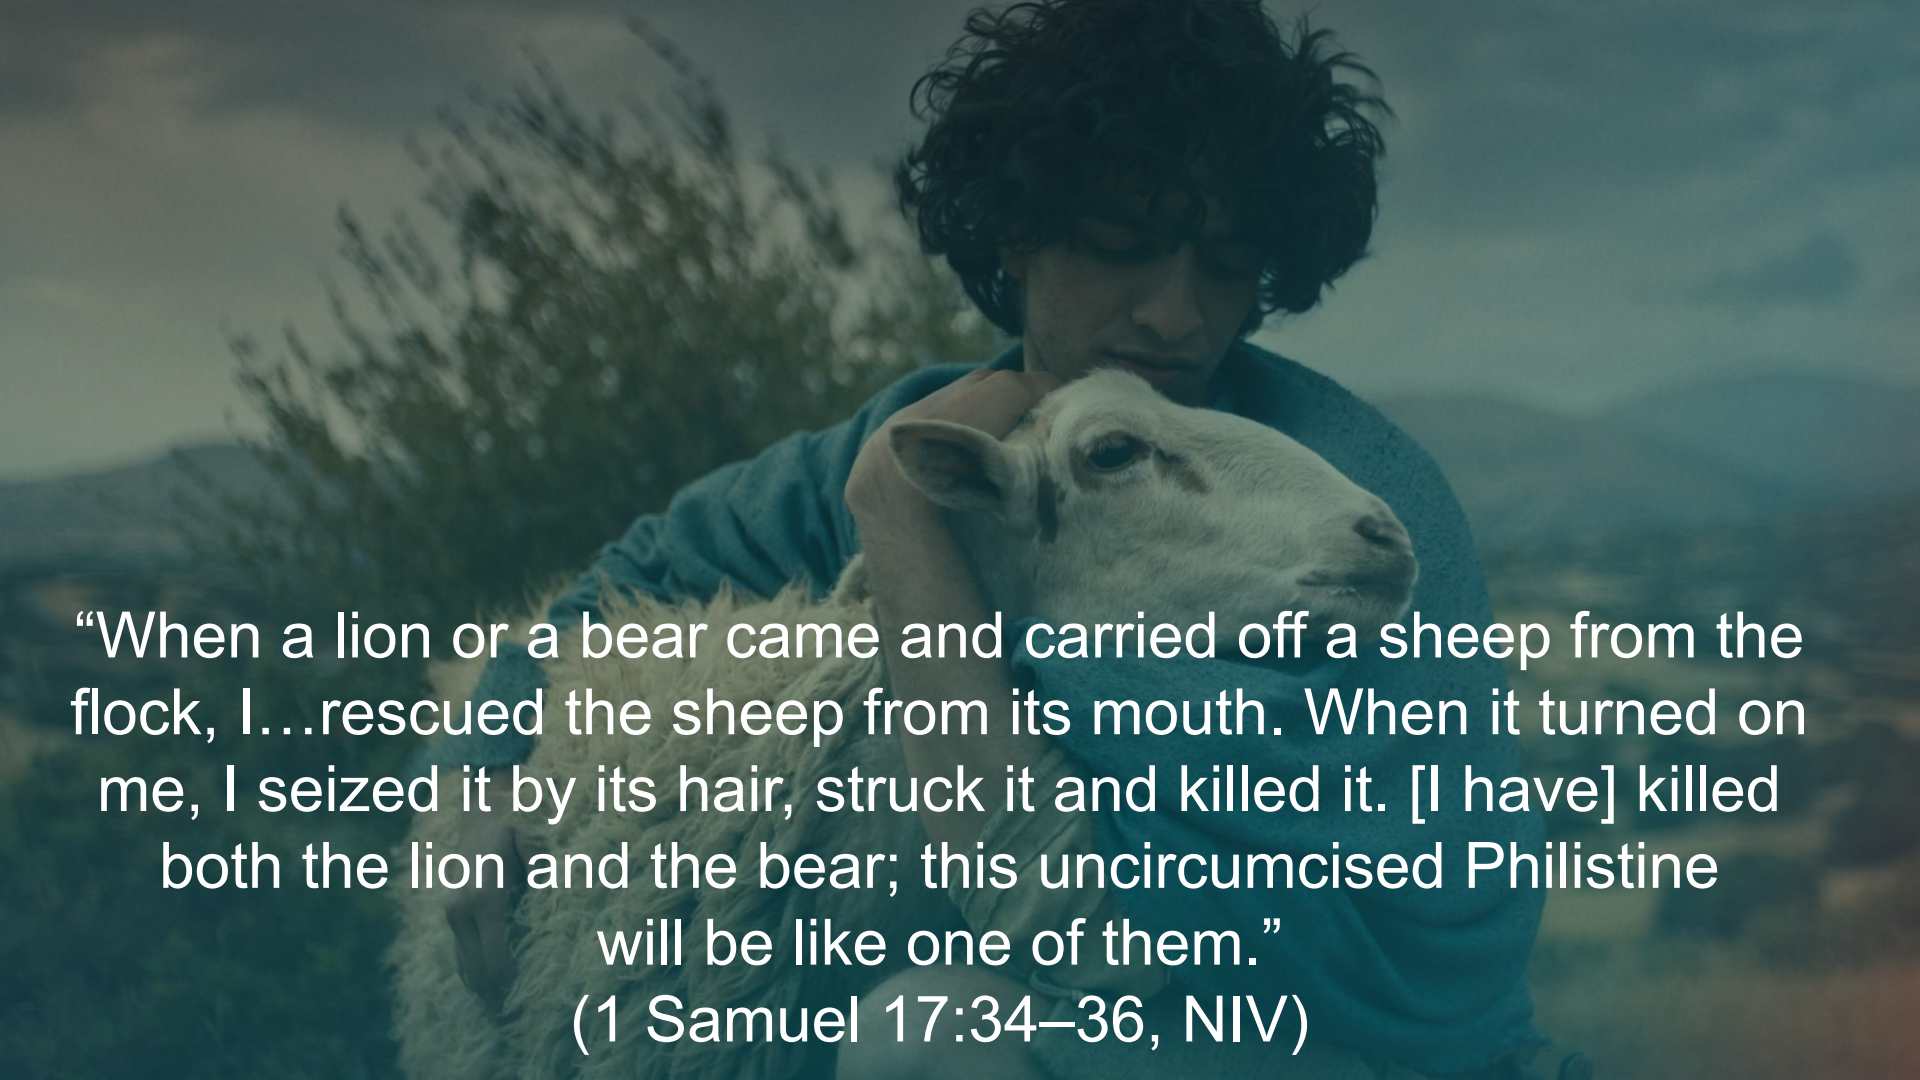

(1 Samuel 17:46, KJV)

“I will smite thee...that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.” (1 Samuel 17:46, KJV)

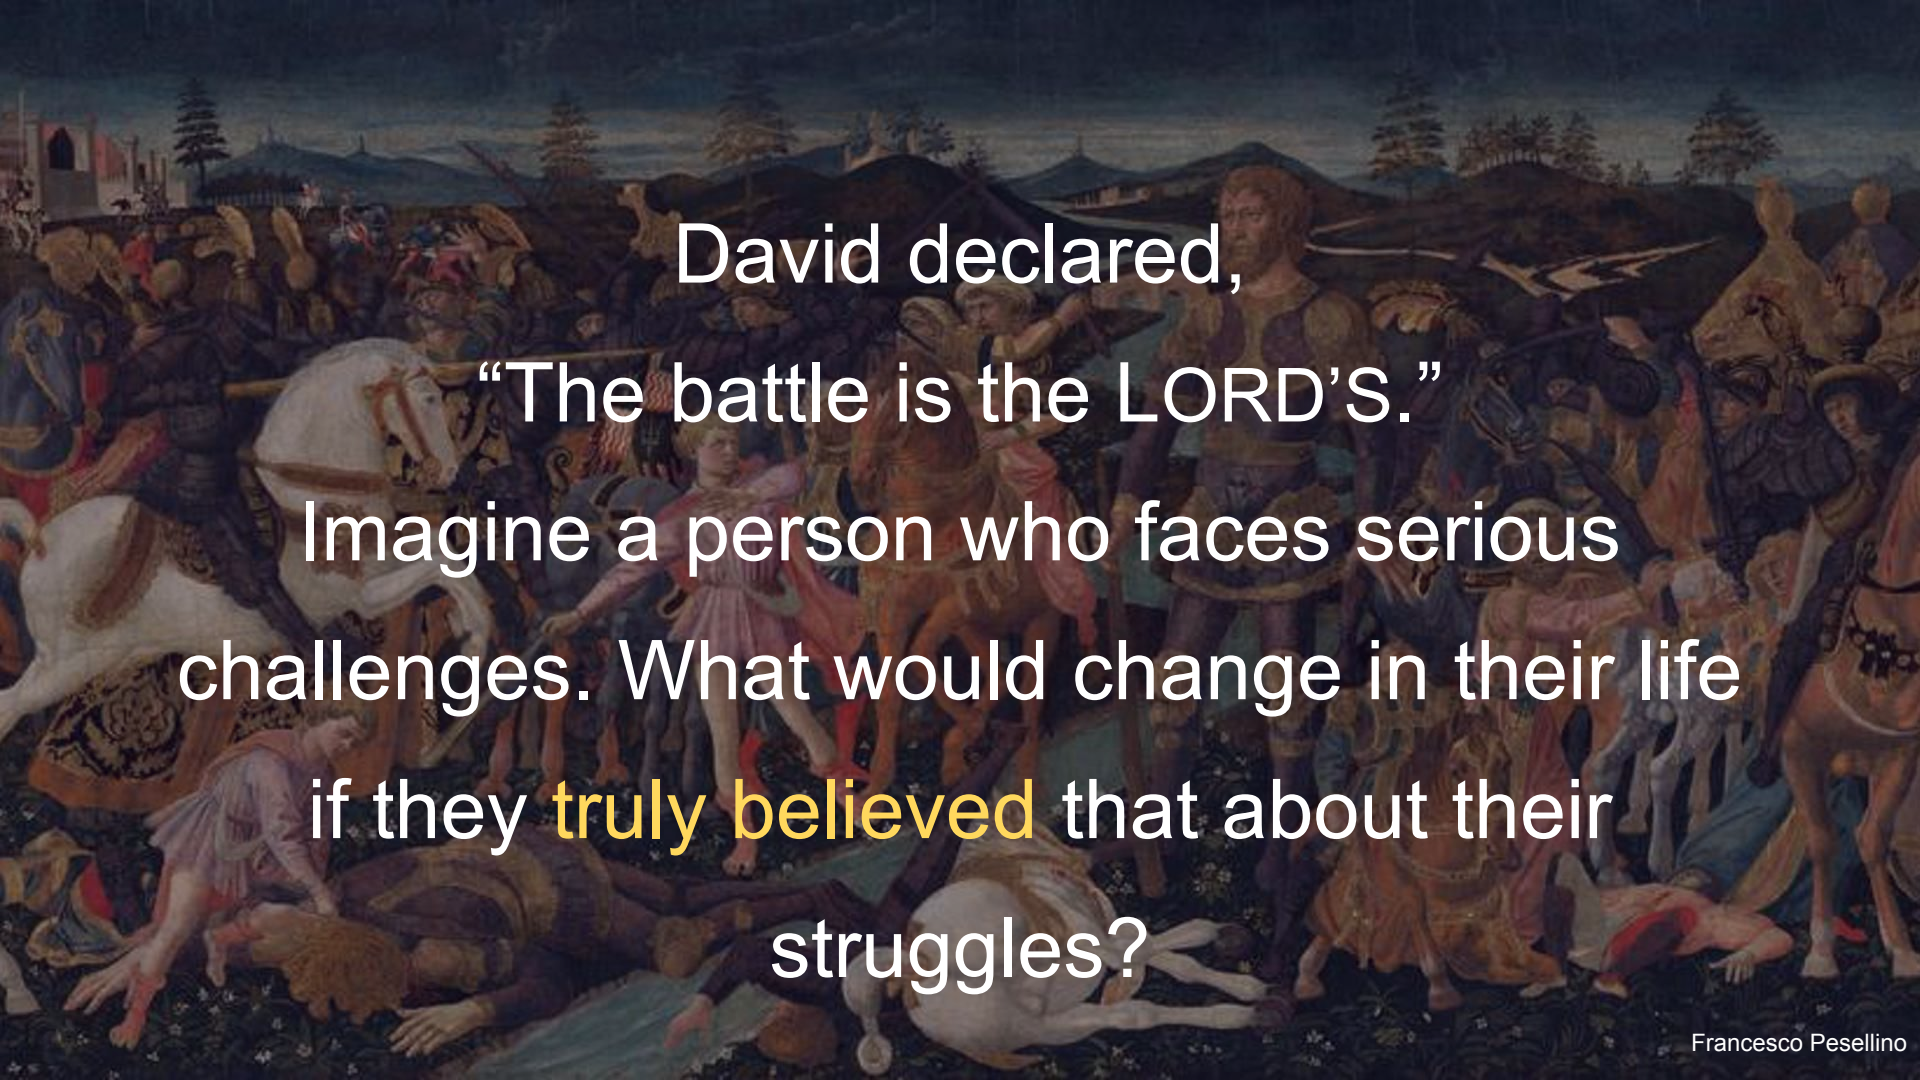

“The battle is the LORD’s.” (1 Samuel 17:47, KJV)

“[When one of his colleagues on the transition team asked him] ‘President, are you scared?’ [he responded,] ‘If I thought we had to execute this transition relying exclusively upon our own experience and our own judgment, then I would be terrified. But we will have help from heaven. Because we know who is in charge and that we are not alone, then no, I am not scared.’”

A young man with dark, curly hair is shown from the chest up, holding a white lamb. He is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt. His hands are gently cradling the lamb's head and neck. The lamb is looking towards the right. The background is a soft-focus landscape with green trees and distant mountains under a hazy sky. The overall tone is peaceful and contemplative.

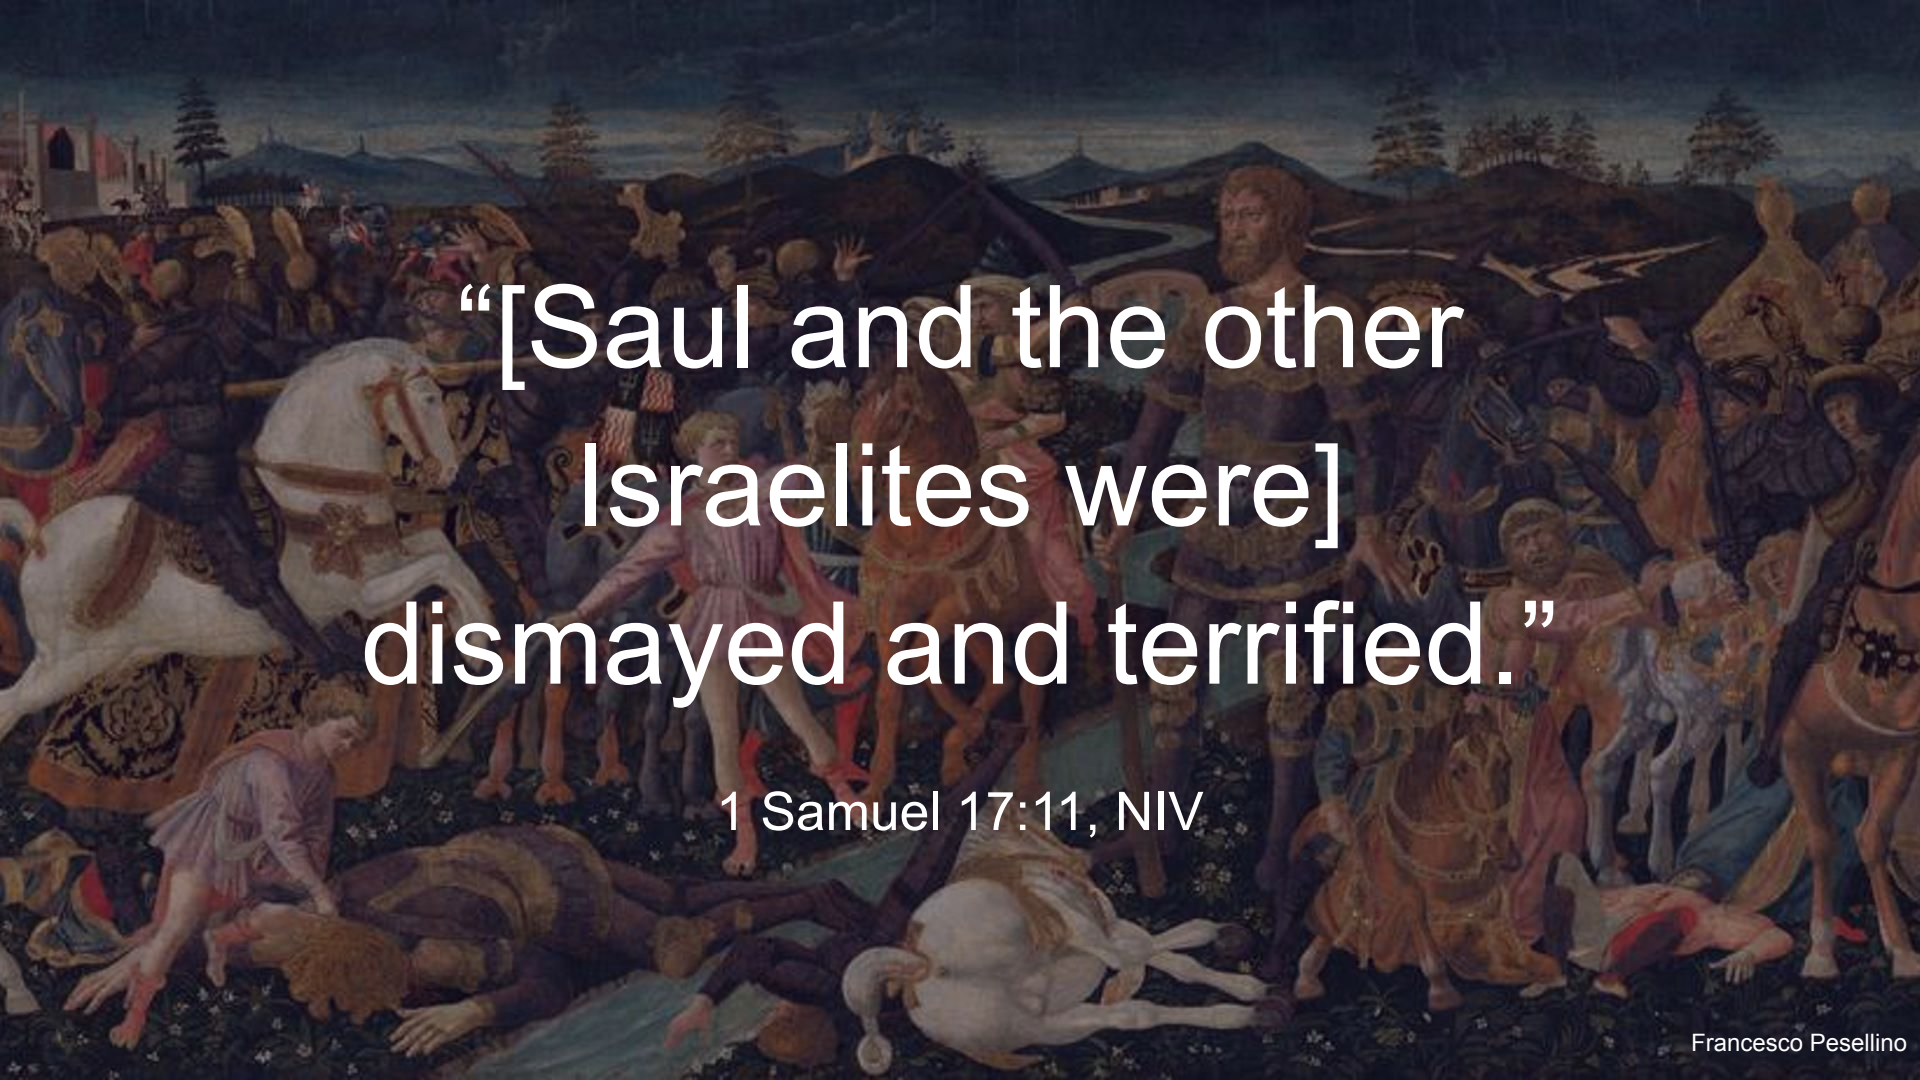

“When a lion or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock, I...rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized it by its hair, struck it and killed it. [I have] killed both the lion and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them.”
(1 Samuel 17:34–36, NIV)

David declared,

“The battle is the LORD’S.”

Imagine a person who faces serious challenges. What would change in their life if they truly believed that about their struggles?

“[Saul and the other Israelites were]
dismayed and terrified.”

1 Samuel 17:11, NIV

Who are you in this story?

David and Goliath

David and Michal

David and Abigail

David and Jonathan

“The women sang to one another as they made merry, ‘Saul has killed his thousands and David his ten thousands.’”

1 Samuel 18:20, KJV

“Michal Saul’s daughter loved David.”

1 Samuel 18:20, KJV

“Do you think it’s a small thing to become the king’s son-in-law? I’m only a poor man.”

1 Samuel 18:23, NIrV

“The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king’s enemies.”

1 Samuel 18:25, KJV

“David arose and went,
he and his men, and slew of the Philistines
two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full [number] to the king.”

1 Samuel 18:27, KJV

“Saul gave David, Michal, his daughter, to wife.”

1 Samuel 18:27, KJV

“Michal loved David.”

1 Samuel 18:28, KJV

“I will make an agreement with you. But I demand one thing of you: Do not come into my presence unless you bring Michal daughter of Saul when you come to see me.”

2 Samuel 3:13, NIV

“David danced before the LORD with all his might.”

2 Samuel 6:14

“As the ark of the LORD
came into the city, Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked through a window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.”

2 Samuel 6:16, KJV

“How the king of Israel
honored himself today,
uncovering himself
today before the eyes
of his servants’ maids,
as any vulgar fellow might shamelessly
uncover himself!”

2 Samuel 6:20, NRSVue

“The LORD...chose me in place of your father and all his household, to appoint me as prince over Israel...I will make myself yet more contemptible than this...the maids of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor.”

2 Samuel 6:21–22, NRSVue

“Therefore, Michal,
the daughter of Saul,
had no child until the day of her death.”

2 Samuel 6:23, KJV

“So many of us make a great fuss of matters of small consequence. We are so easily offended. Happy is the man who can brush aside the offending remarks of another and go on his way.”

President Gordon B. Hinckley, “Slow to Anger”, October 2007

“If you don’t send us more reinforcements we’re going to come kill you!”

Paraphrase of Alma 60:30, 35

“In your epistle you
have censured me,
but it mattereth
not. I am not angry,
but do rejoice in
the greatness of your heart.”

Alma 61:9

“Well, the Lord chose me instead of you to be the chief judge over this people...”

“In your epistle you
have censured me,
but it mattereth
not. I am not angry,
but do rejoice in
the greatness of your heart.”

Alma 61:9

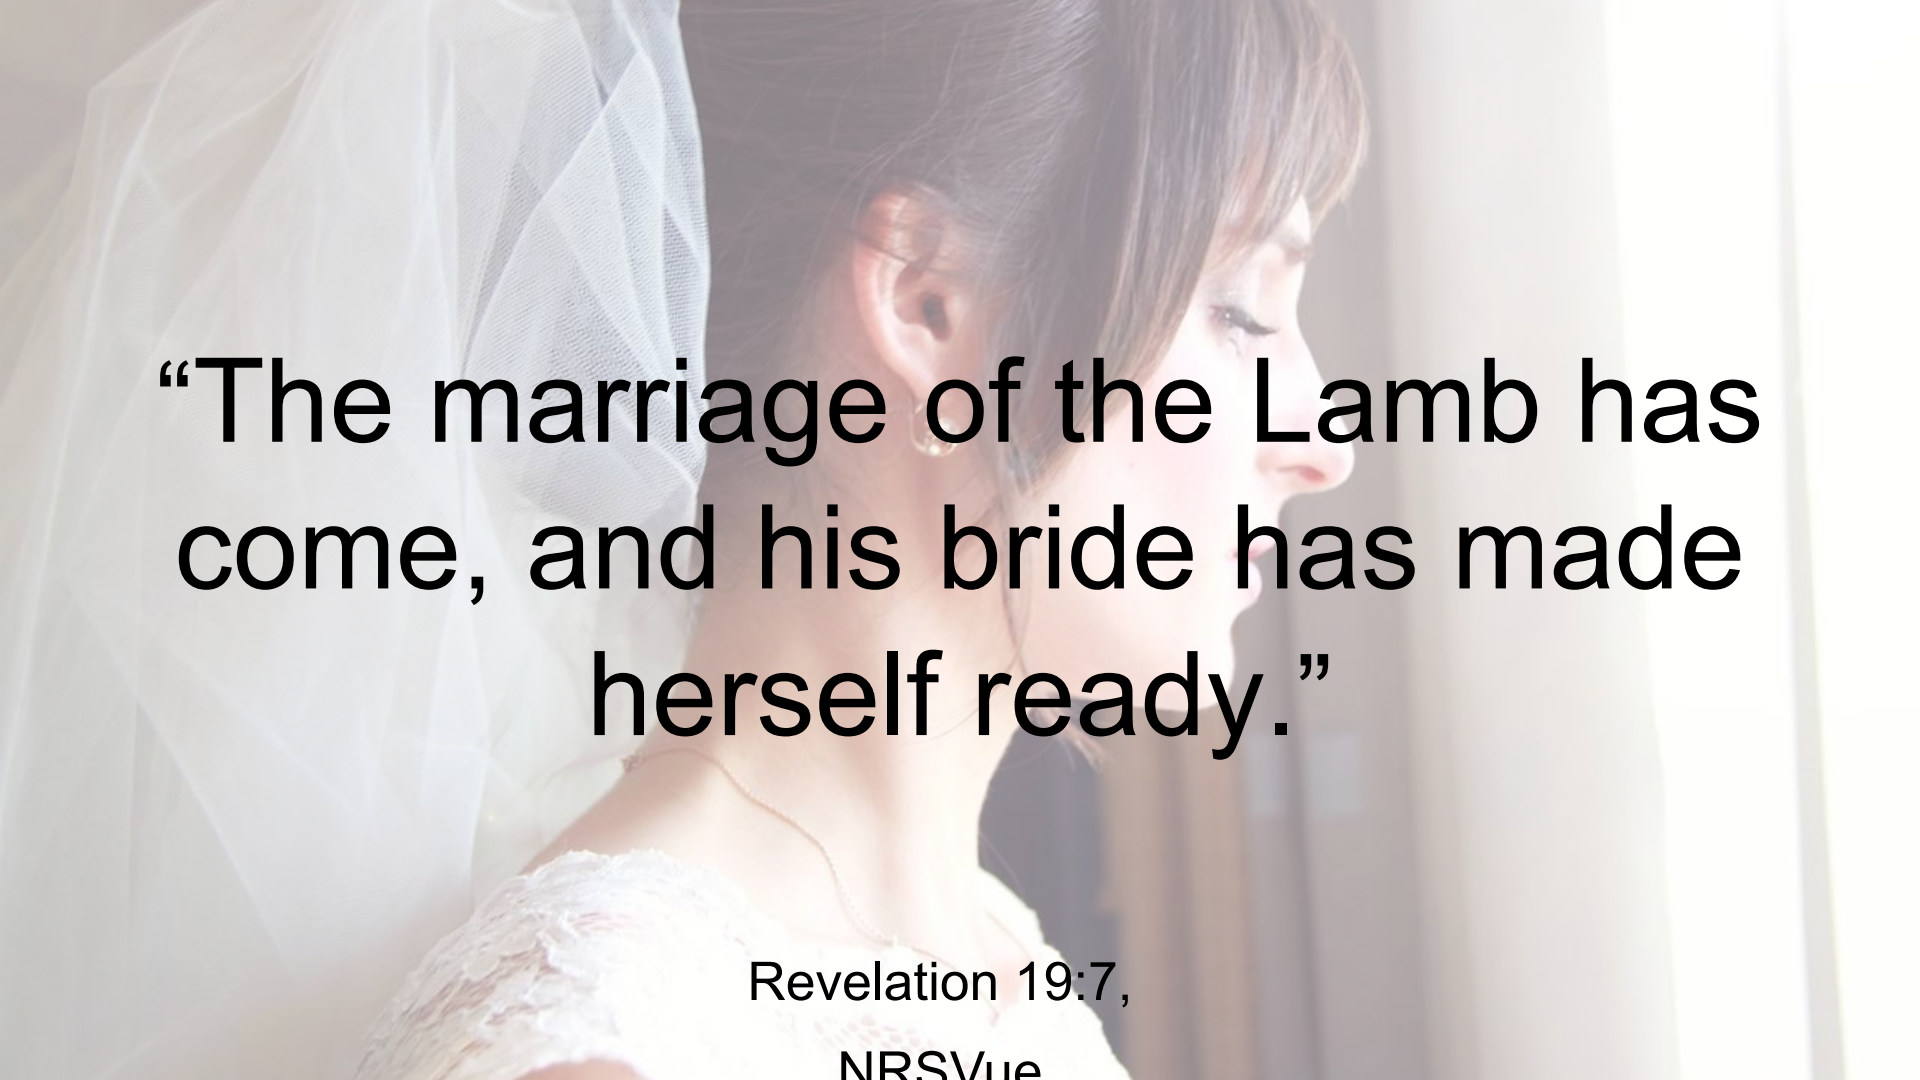

1) Think of a recent conversation where you wish you had responded differently. What was said?

2) Think of one phrase or sentence you could have spoken instead.

3) What practical habits could help you speak with kinder words?

A close-up, profile shot of a bride looking down. She is wearing a white lace wedding dress and a sheer white veil. Her hair is dark and styled with bangs. The background is softly blurred, showing what appears to be a window with light coming through. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

“The marriage of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready.”

Revelation 19:7,

David and Jonathan

“When your shepherds were with us, we did not mistreat them...therefore be favorable toward my men....please give your servants and your son David whatever you can find for them.”

1 Samuel 25:7–8, NIV

“Who is David? Who is this son of Jesse?
...Why should I take my bread and water and [my] meat ... and give it to men coming from who knows where?”

1 Samuel 25:10–11, NIV

“Each of you strap on your sword.”

1 Samuel 25:7–8, NIV

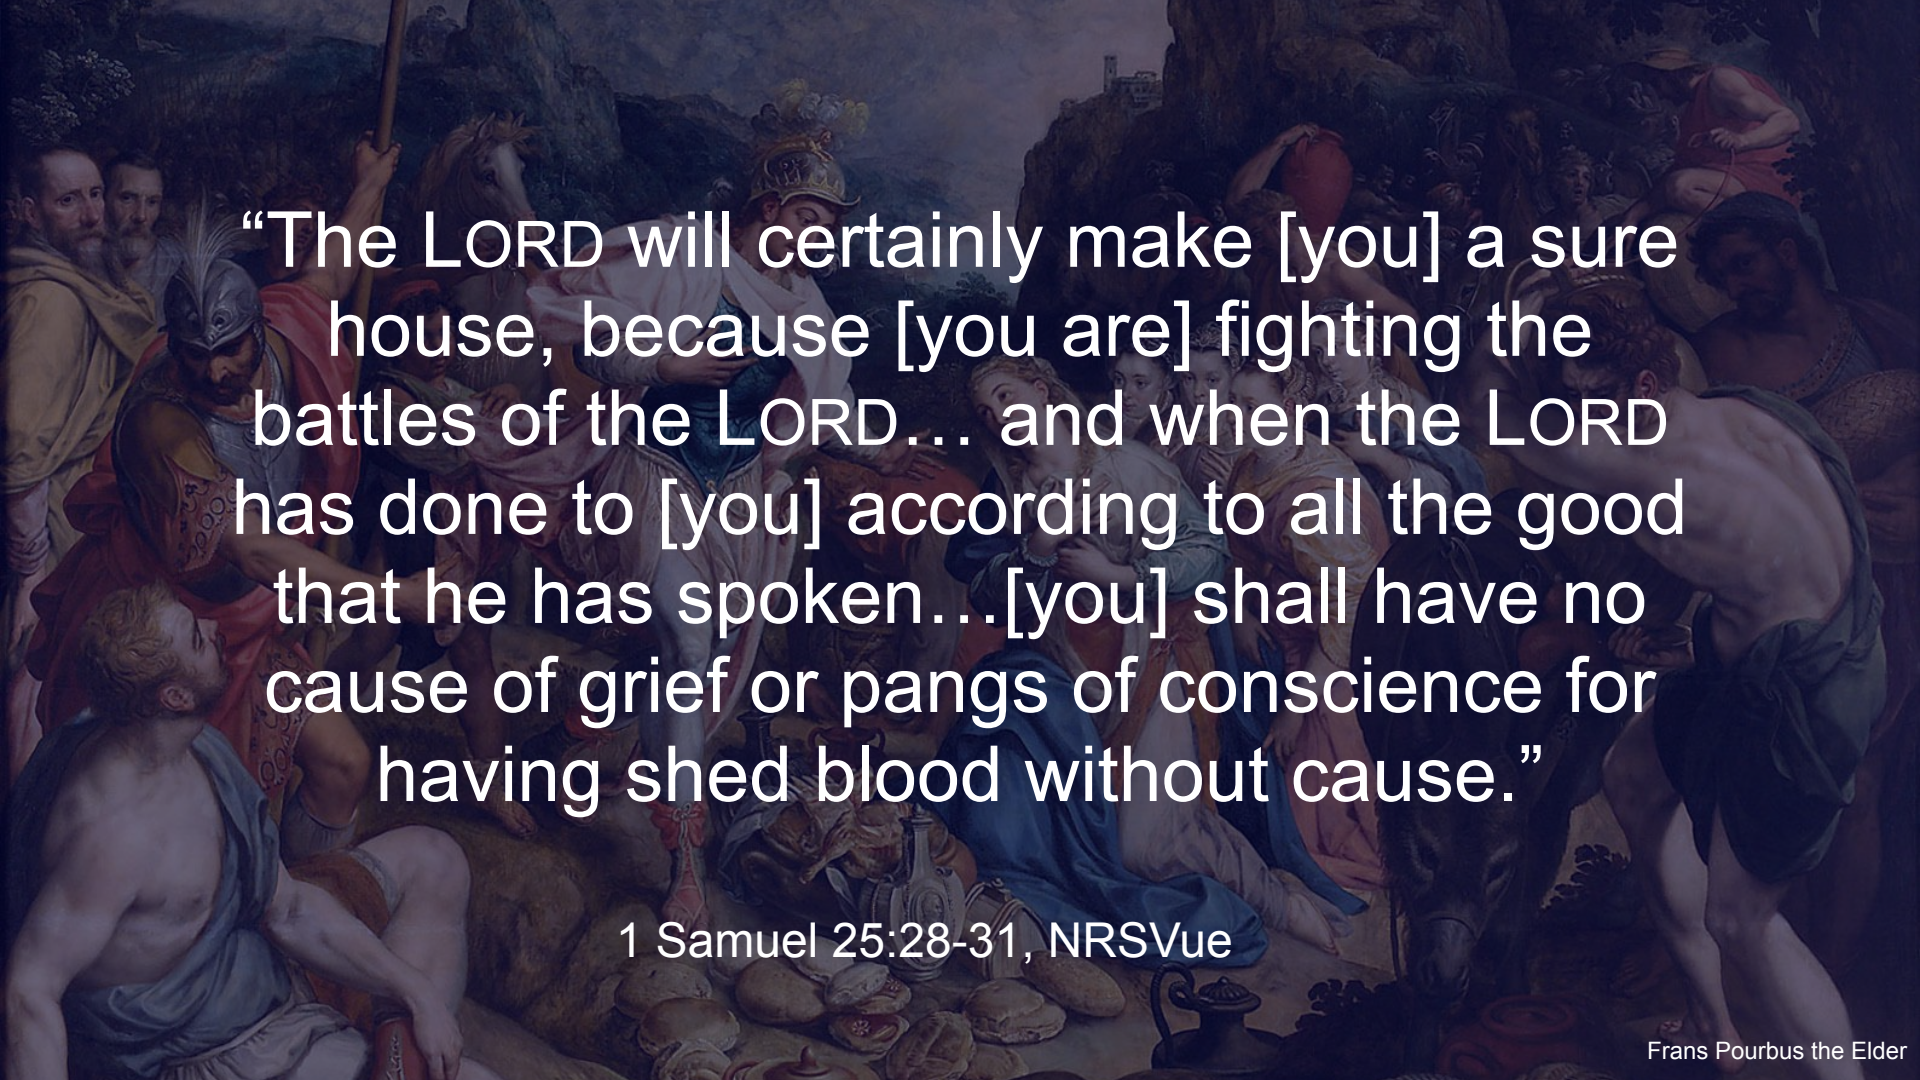

Frans Pourbus the Elder

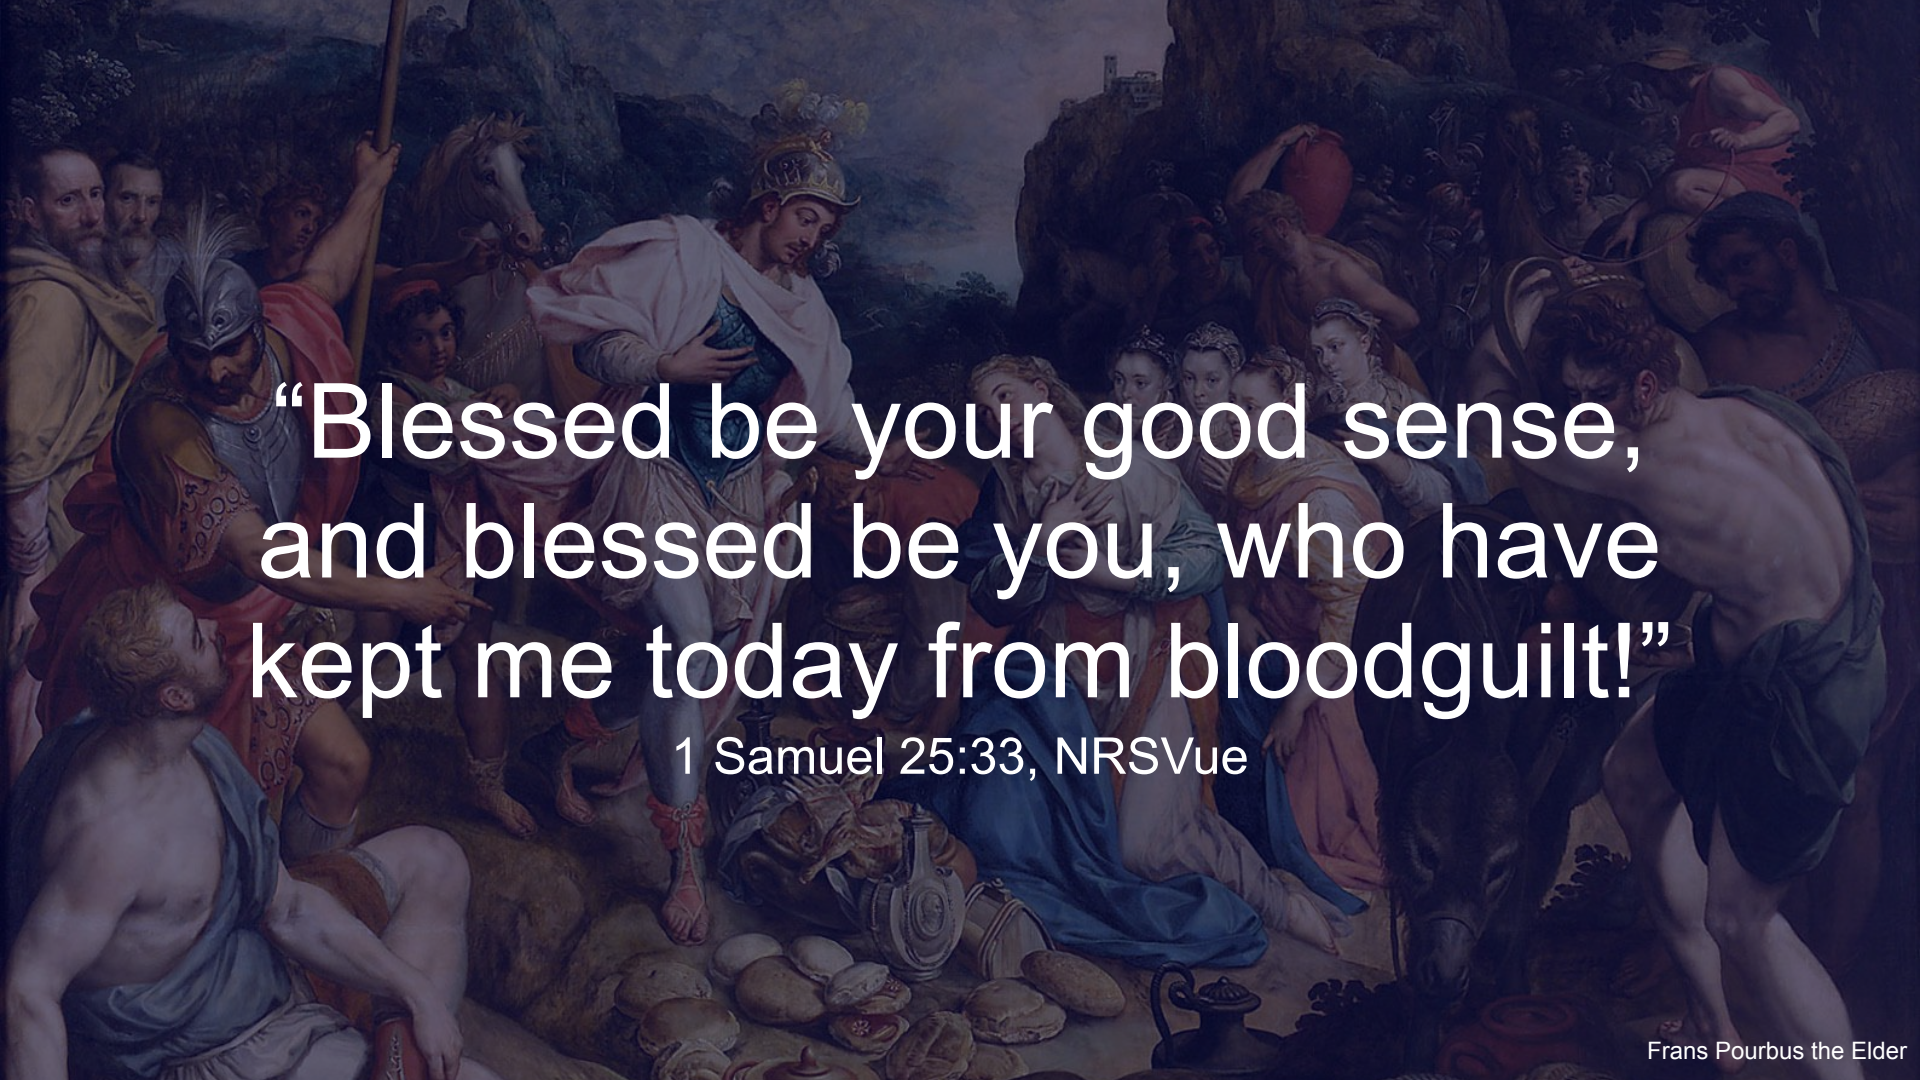

“Upon me alone, my
lord, be the guilt.”

1 Samuel 25:24, NRSVue

“The LORD will certainly make [you] a sure house, because [you are] fighting the battles of the LORD... and when the LORD has done to [you] according to all the good that he has spoken...[you] shall have no cause of grief or pangs of conscience for having shed blood without cause.”

1 Samuel 25:28-31, NRSVue

“Blessed be your good sense, and blessed be you, who have kept me today from bloodguilt!”

1 Samuel 25:33, NRSVue

“A soft answer
turns away wrath,
but a harsh word
stirs up anger.”

Proverbs 15:1, NKJV

“Upon me alone, my
lord, be the guilt.”

1 Samuel 25:24, NRSVue

“[Jesus] himself bore our sins in his body on the cross.”

1 Peter 2:24, NRSVue

INTERCES'SION, noun Latin intercessio, from intercedo. [See Intercede.]

The act of interceding; mediation; interposition between parties at variance, with a view to reconciliation; prayer or solicitation to one party in favor of another, sometimes against another.

“[Christ] is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.”

Hebrews 7:25, NRSVue

Abigail interceded on behalf of Nabal. What might it look like for a person to intercede today?

The background of the slide is a painting by James Tissot, titled 'David and His Men Celebrating'. It depicts King David and his men in a state of jubilation, holding up large tambourines and palm branches. The scene is set outdoors with palm trees in the background. The figures are dressed in traditional ancient attire, including tunics, belts, and head coverings. The overall mood is one of triumph and celebration.

David and Michal

David and Abigail

David and Jonathan

“Jonathan became one in spirit with David, and he loved him as himself...And Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself.”

1 Samuel 18:2–3, NIV

“Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his tunic, and even his sword...”

1 Samuel 18:4, NIV

“I acknowledge that you are the true king of Israel.
I surrender all of my power and authority and give it to you.”

“You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Don’t I know that you have sided with the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who bore you? As long as the son of Jesse lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now send someone to bring [David] to me, for he must die.”

1 Samuel 20:30–31, NIV

“Why should he be put to death? What has he done?”

1 Samuel 20:32, NIV

“Saul hurled his spear at [Jonathan] to kill him.”

1 Samuel 20:33, NIV

“Jonathan went to David...and helped him find strength in God.”

1 Samuel 23:16, NIV

“Don’t be afraid...My father Saul will not lay a hand on you. You will be king over Israel, and I will be second to you...”

1 Samuel 23:17–18, NIV

“Don’t be afraid...My father Saul will not lay a hand on you. You will be king over Israel, and I will be second to you...”

“The two of them made a covenant before the LORD.”

1 Samuel 23:17–18, NIV

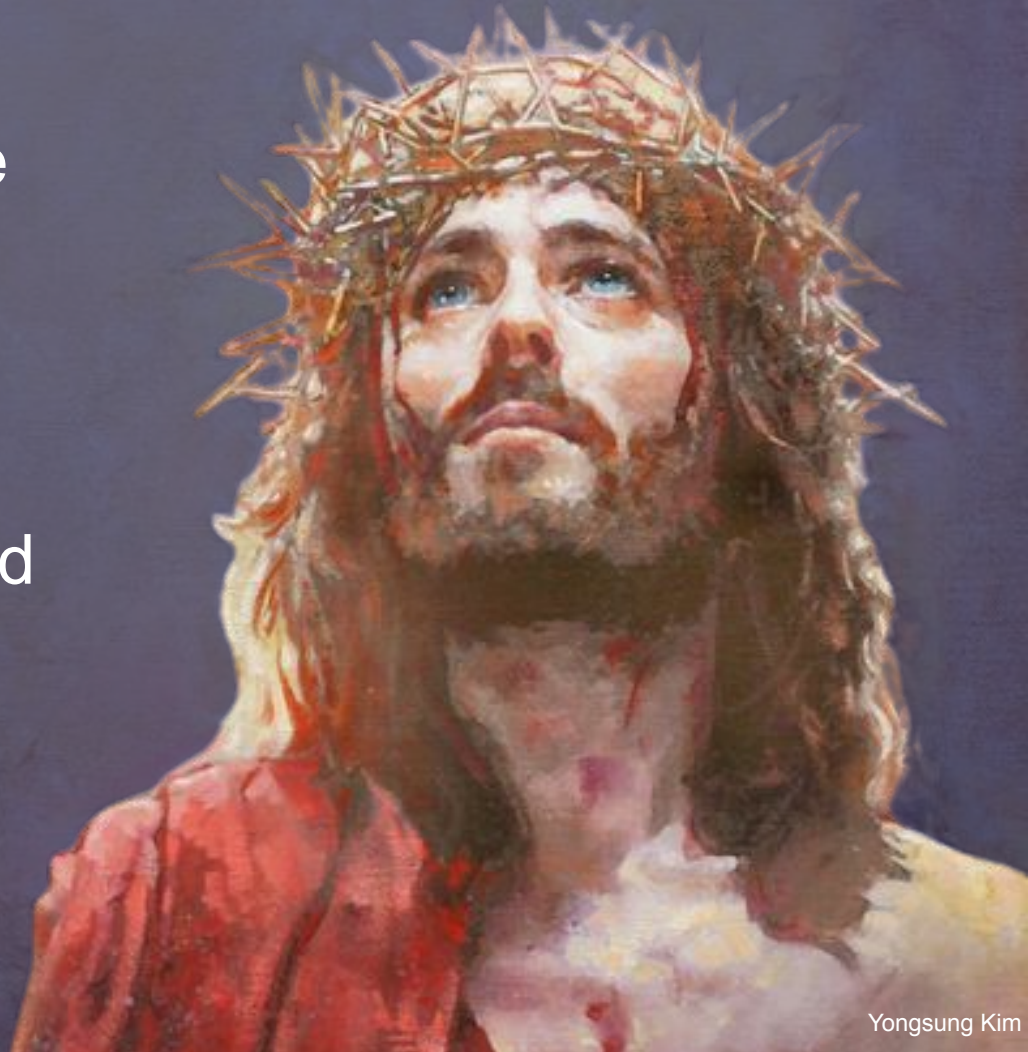

“Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his tunic, and even his sword...”

“[Christ] gave up his divine privileges; he took the humble position of a slave and was born as a human being. When he appeared in human form, he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal’s death on a cross.”

Philippians 2:7–8, NLT

Was this fair?

“Because of [Christ’s] Atonement, all that is unfair
about this life is resolved.”

Elder Quentin L. Cook,
Church News, Sept. 11, 2025

“I will be second to you.”

“You have to do exactly what Jonathan did. You have to look at God’s anointed, and you have to say... ‘If [you are] going to get in my life, I have to get off the throne of my life. I can’t just believe in you. I can’t just try to emulate you. I have to give you my life. I have to take off my robe...’ I have to say, ‘You’re first. You’re absolute Lord of my life.’”

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST MATTHEW

CHAPTER 1

*Christ is born of Mary—She conceives by the power of the Holy G
—Our Lord is named Jesus.*

1 The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of ^aDavid, the son of Abraham.

“Jesus, thou Son of David,
have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:37, KJV

“What think ye of Christ? Whose son is he?”

Matthew 22:42, KJV

“The Son of David.”

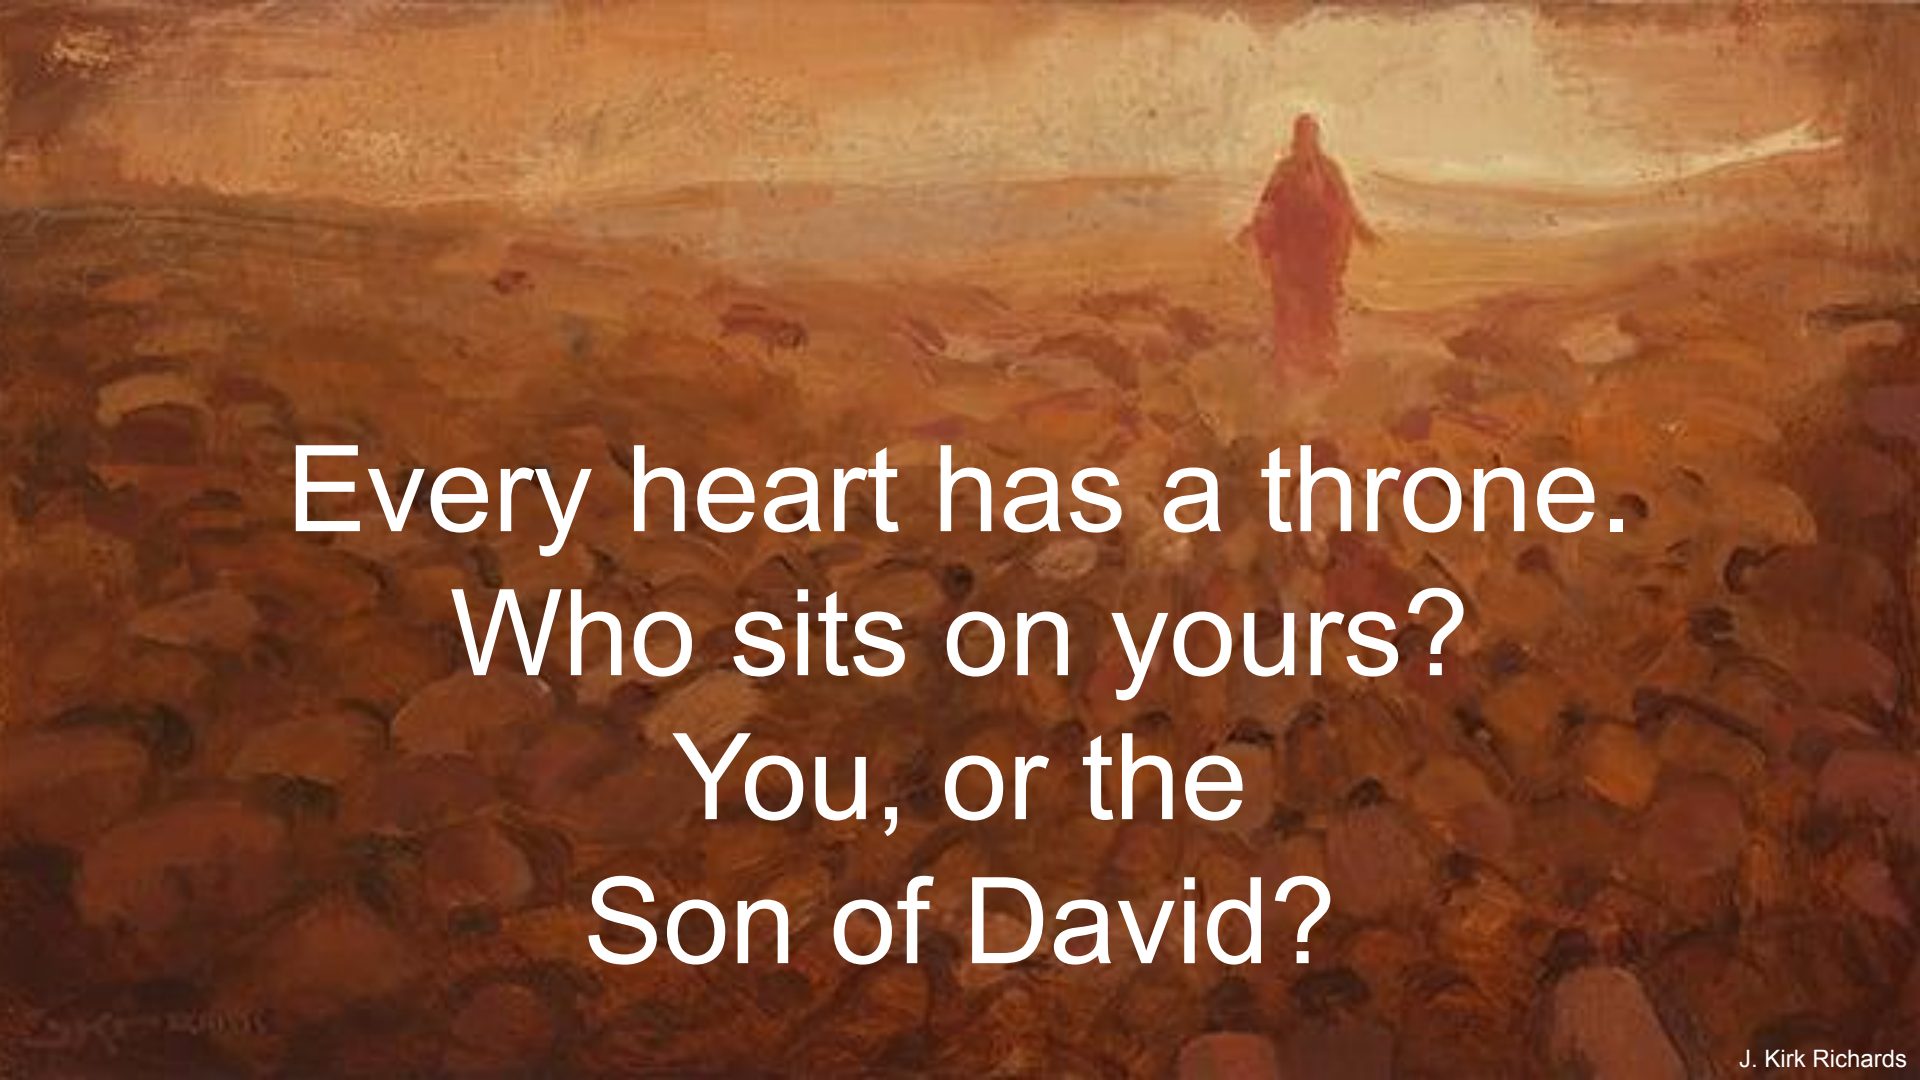

Matthew 22:42, KJV

“The multitudes...cried...
Hosanna to the Son of David!”

Matthew 21:9

A painting with a warm, brownish-orange color palette. In the center, a figure wearing a long red robe stands on a rocky, uneven shore, looking out towards a body of water. In the distance, a small boat is visible on the water. The sky is a pale, hazy yellow. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Every heart has a throne.
Who sits on yours?
You, or the Son of David?
