A painting depicting the Tabernacle in the wilderness. The scene is set in a hazy, golden-brown landscape. In the center, the Tabernacle is visible, a large tent-like structure with a dark interior. Numerous people, dressed in traditional robes, are gathered around the Tabernacle. Some are standing, some are kneeling, and some have their hands raised in prayer or praise. The overall atmosphere is one of awe and devotion. The text is overlaid on the upper half of the image.

PRINCIPLES

Doctrinally based guidelines for the exercise of agency.

Principles arise from doctrines and do not change; they provide direction but are not specific behaviors or actions.

WHAT

APPLICATIONS

Actual behaviors, actions steps or practices.

Applications grow out of principles and can vary according to needs or circumstances.

HOW

Doctrine: God is a holy, divine being.

Principle: I am created in the image of God. Therefore, I need to be holy like God.

Application: Very specific applications, many of which do not apply to us today.

because I, the LORD, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be my own.”

Leviticus 20:26 NIV

Jorge Cocco San Francisco 2016

“There are six days when you may work, but the seventh day is a day of sabbath rest, a day of sacred assembly. You are not to do any work; wherever you live, it is a sabbath to the LORD.”

Leviticus 23:3, NIV

A photograph of two pink pigs in a field. One pig is in the foreground, partially buried in a mound of dark brown soil, with its head and front legs visible. The other pig is standing behind it, facing the camera. The background shows a line of green trees under a clear blue sky. The text is overlaid in white, serif font.

“The pig...is unclean for you.
You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you”

Leviticus 11:8, NIV

Living these laws sets us apart and helps us to become holy.

“Do not cut the hair at the sides
of your head or clip off the edges
of your beard.”

Leviticus 19:27, NIV

A large, diverse crowd of people is walking along a wide city sidewalk. In the background, there is a grand building with classical architectural features, including tall columns and a pediment. Bare trees are visible on the left side of the sidewalk. The overall scene suggests a busy urban environment, possibly during a public event or a busy day in a city center. How does God today call us to be set apart?

Does our behavior on the Sabbath set us apart
in a world that treats Sunday like any other day?

Do our choices about what we eat and drink mark us as disciples?

The Burnt Offering

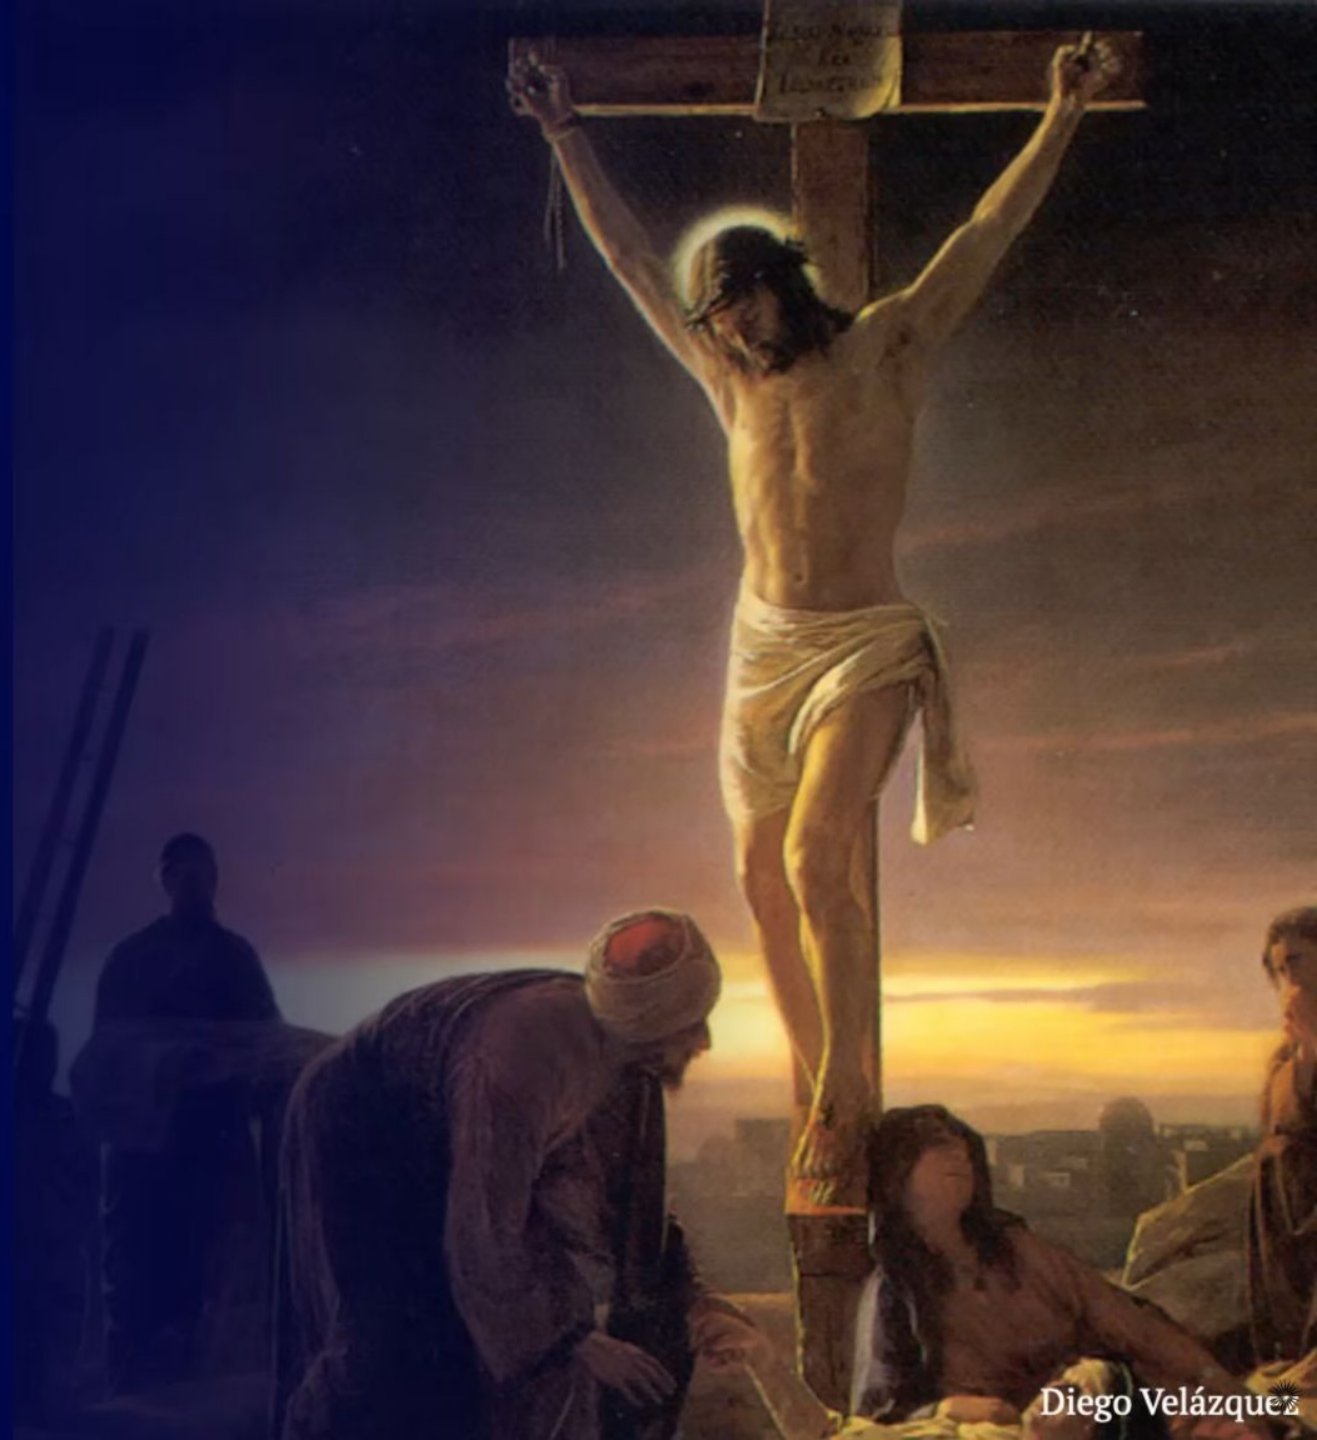

A man with a beard, wearing a white turban and a dark blue robe with a white sash, is kneeling on the floor. He is gently touching the head of a white lamb with his right hand. The lamb is lying down, facing left. In the background, there is a brick fireplace with a warm, orange glow emanating from within. The scene is set in a room with dark wood paneling.

“You are to lay your hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on your behalf to make atonement for you.”

Leviticus 1:4 NIV

“The LORD has laid on [Christ]
the iniquity of us all.”

Isaiah 53:6 NIV

A painting depicting Jesus, with a beard and wearing a red robe and white head covering, standing in a rocky, hilly landscape. He is surrounded by a group of people, including men, women, and children. Some people are looking at him, while others are engaged in conversation. The scene is set against a backdrop of rugged mountains and a soft, hazy sky. The overall style is that of a religious painting, with a focus on the central figure of Jesus and his interaction with the community.

Jesus gave Himself wholly for us, so that we might be made holy in Him.

The Freewill Offering

See Leviticus 22:18, NIV

“I lay down my life
for the sheep... No one takes it from me, but I lay it down
of my own accord.”

John 10:15, 18 NIV

Jorge Cocco San Francisco 2016

“I was exhausted and frustrated. Every day felt like one more demand—another meal to cook, another nose to wipe, another diaper to change. I began resenting how much of myself I had to give up.”

“But then I remembered that I had always wanted to be a mom. It was my choice. When I saw it as something I wanted to do, everything changed. It’s still exhausting, but now I find joy in serving my children.”

The Daily Offering

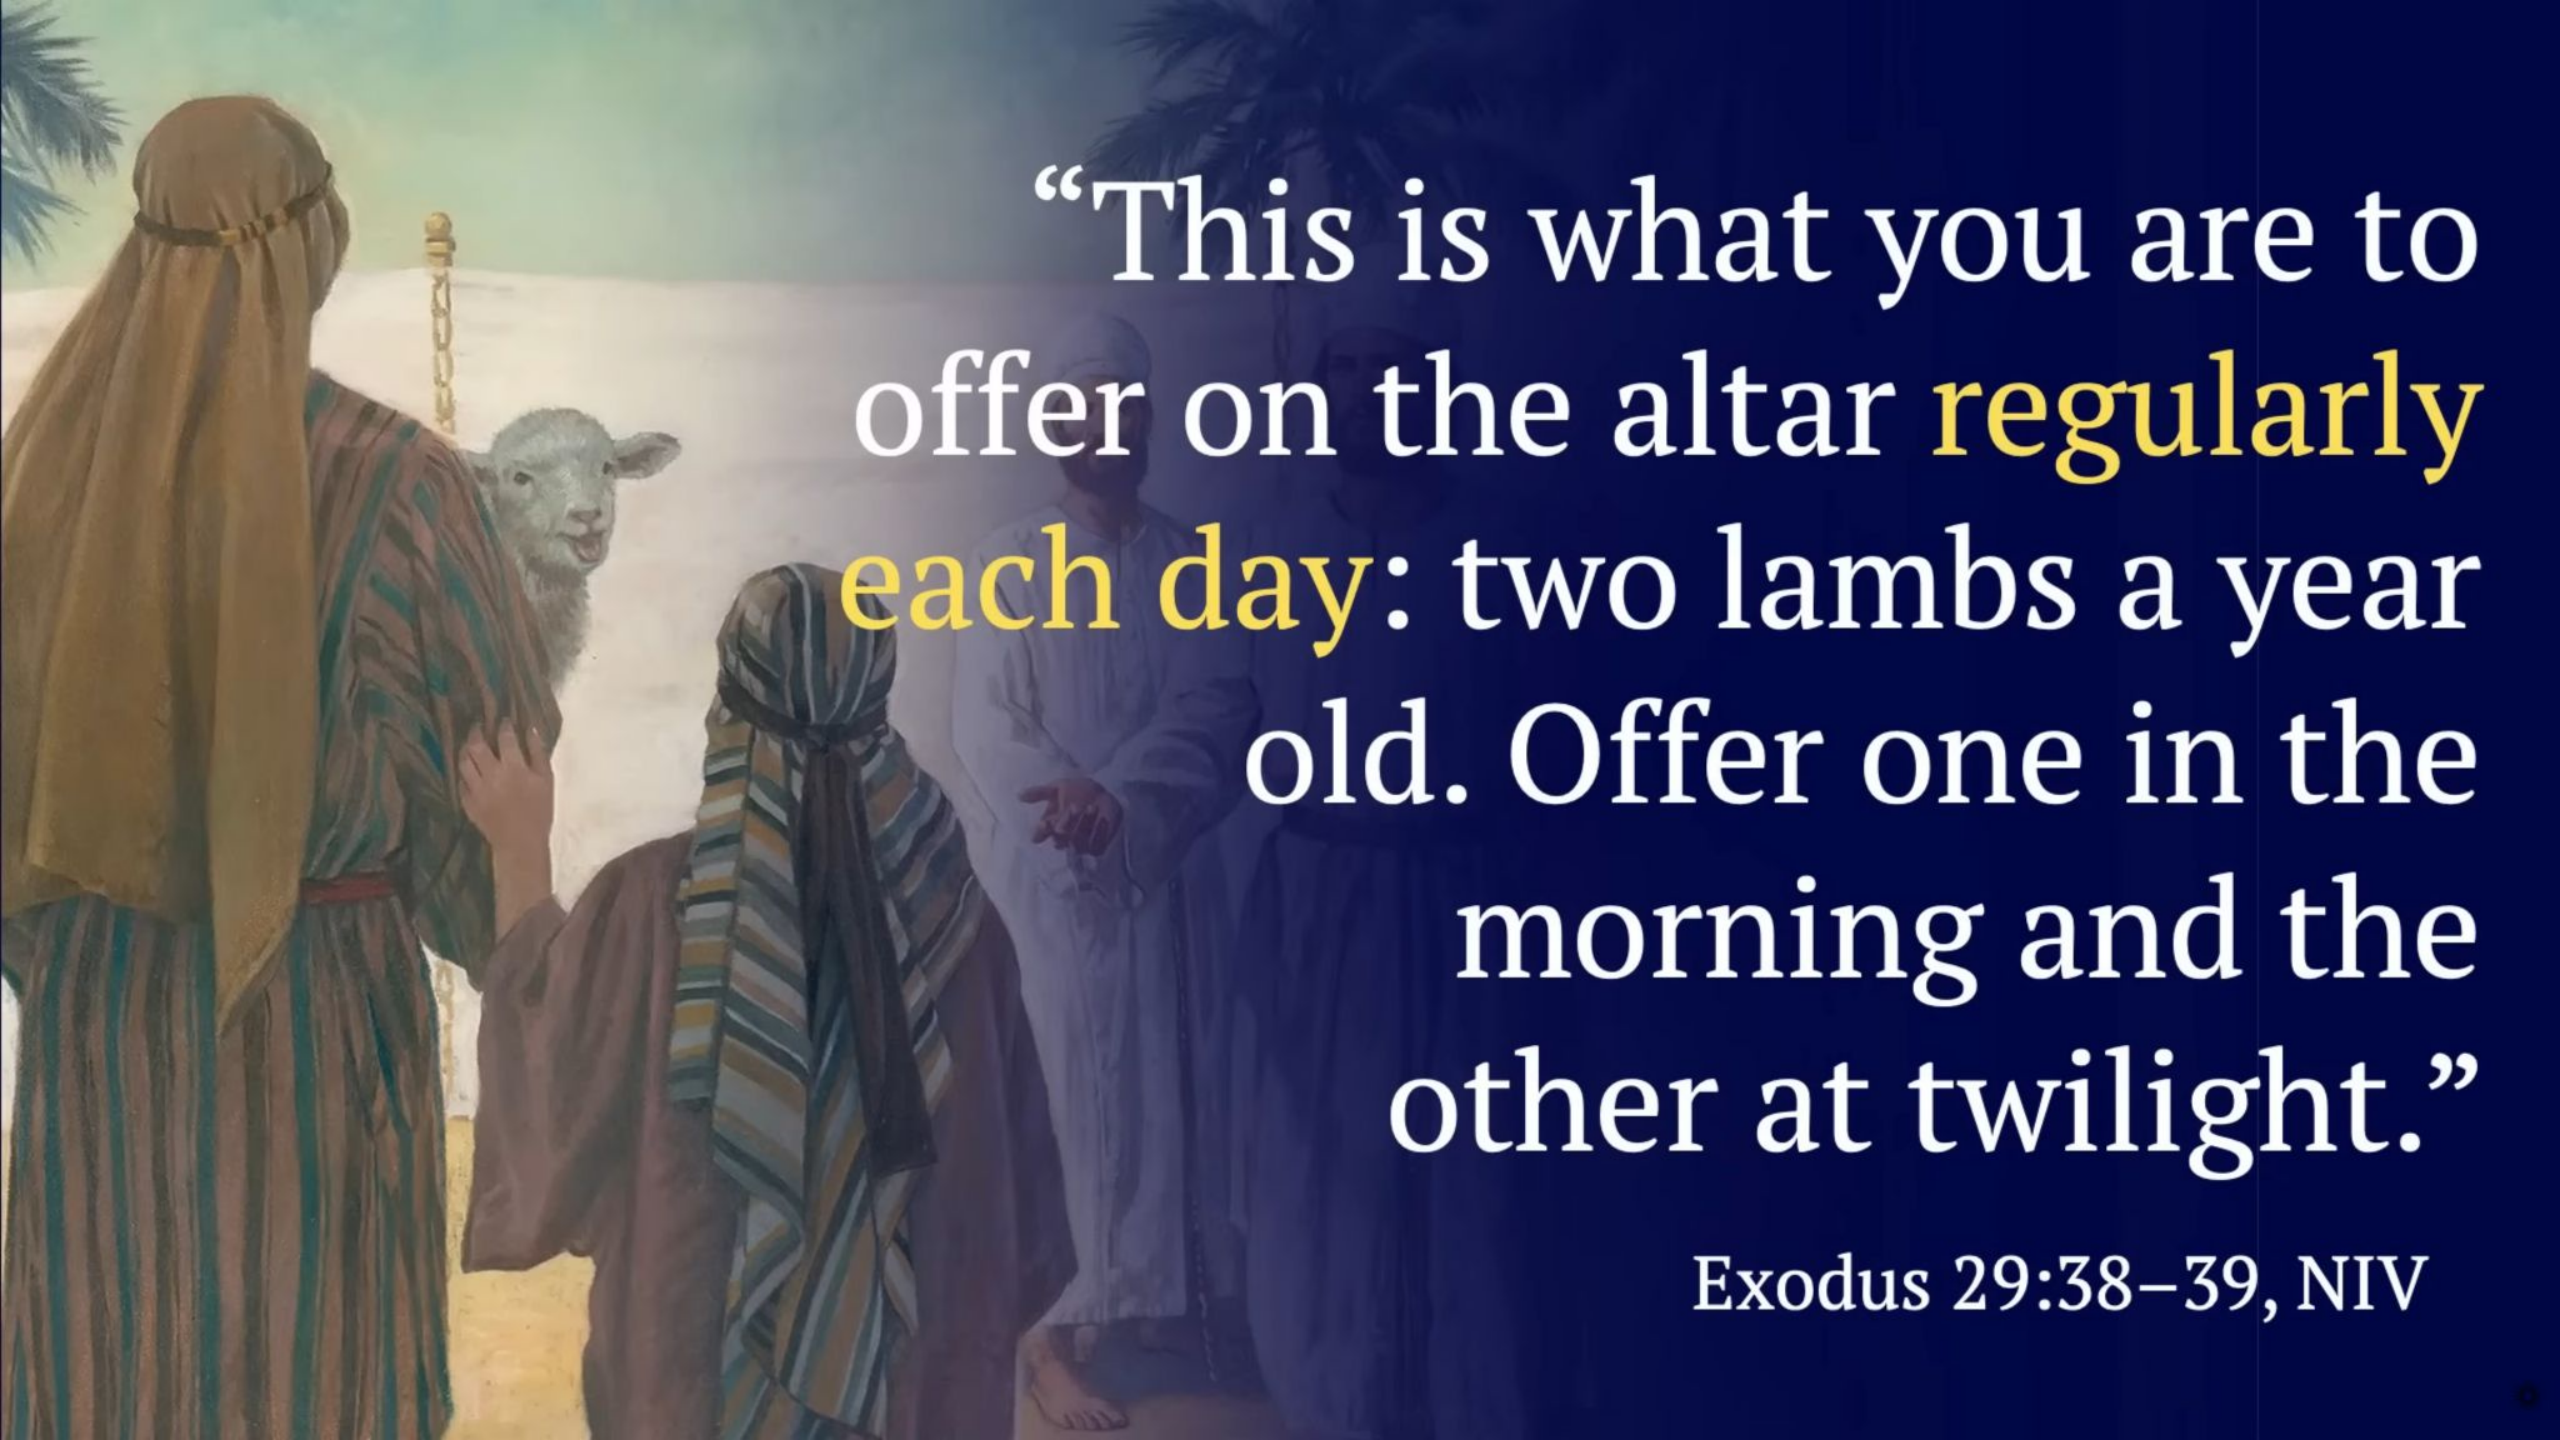

A man with glasses, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and a red and white striped tie, is speaking at a wooden podium. Behind him is a large, elaborate floral arrangement featuring green hydrangeas, red flowers, and yellow flowers. A speech bubble is overlaid on the left side of the image.

“Drop everything and move to Missouri.”

“Read the scriptures
every day.”

“This is what you are to offer on the altar regularly each day: two lambs a year old. Offer one in the morning and the other at twilight.”

Exodus 29:38–39, NIV

“Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.”

Luke 9:23, NIV

Life by the yard is hard; by the inch it's a cinch. Each of us can be true for just one day--and then one more and then one more after that--until we've lived a lifetime guided by the Spirit, a lifetime close to the Lord, a lifetime of good deeds and righteousness.

-Thomas S. Monson

We've looked at three types of sacrifice:
Burnt offering (whole animal offered), Free Will Offering (freely given), and the Daily Sacrifice (offered daily).

Pick one of these sacrifices—how have you (or how could you) apply it in your life to increase in holiness?

“Anyone with...a defiling [skin] disease must wear torn clothes, let their hair be unkempt, cover the lower part of their face and cry out, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’ As long as they have the disease they remain unclean. They must live alone; they must live outside the camp.”

Leviticus 13:45–46 NIV

“If anyone...touch[es] anything ceremonially unclean...
they become unclean.”

Leviticus 5:2–3, NIV

A woman wearing a white robe and a red headscarf is sitting on the ground, looking up at a person whose legs and feet are visible in the foreground. The person is wearing a white robe and a red headscarf. The background is a stone wall.

“When a woman has her regular flow of blood, the impurity of her monthly period will last seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean till evening.”

Leviticus 15:19, NIV

A woman wearing a red headscarf and a white robe with red trim is sitting on the ground, looking up at a person whose legs and feet are visible in the foreground. The person is wearing a white robe and sandals. The background is a stone wall.

“When a woman has a discharge of blood for many days at a time other than her monthly period or has a discharge that continues beyond her period, she will be unclean as long as she has the discharge.”

Leviticus 15:25, NIV

“If you are willing, you can make me clean.”

“[Jesus] reached out his hand and touched the man.
“I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!”
(Mark 1:41, NIV)

At once Jesus realized that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

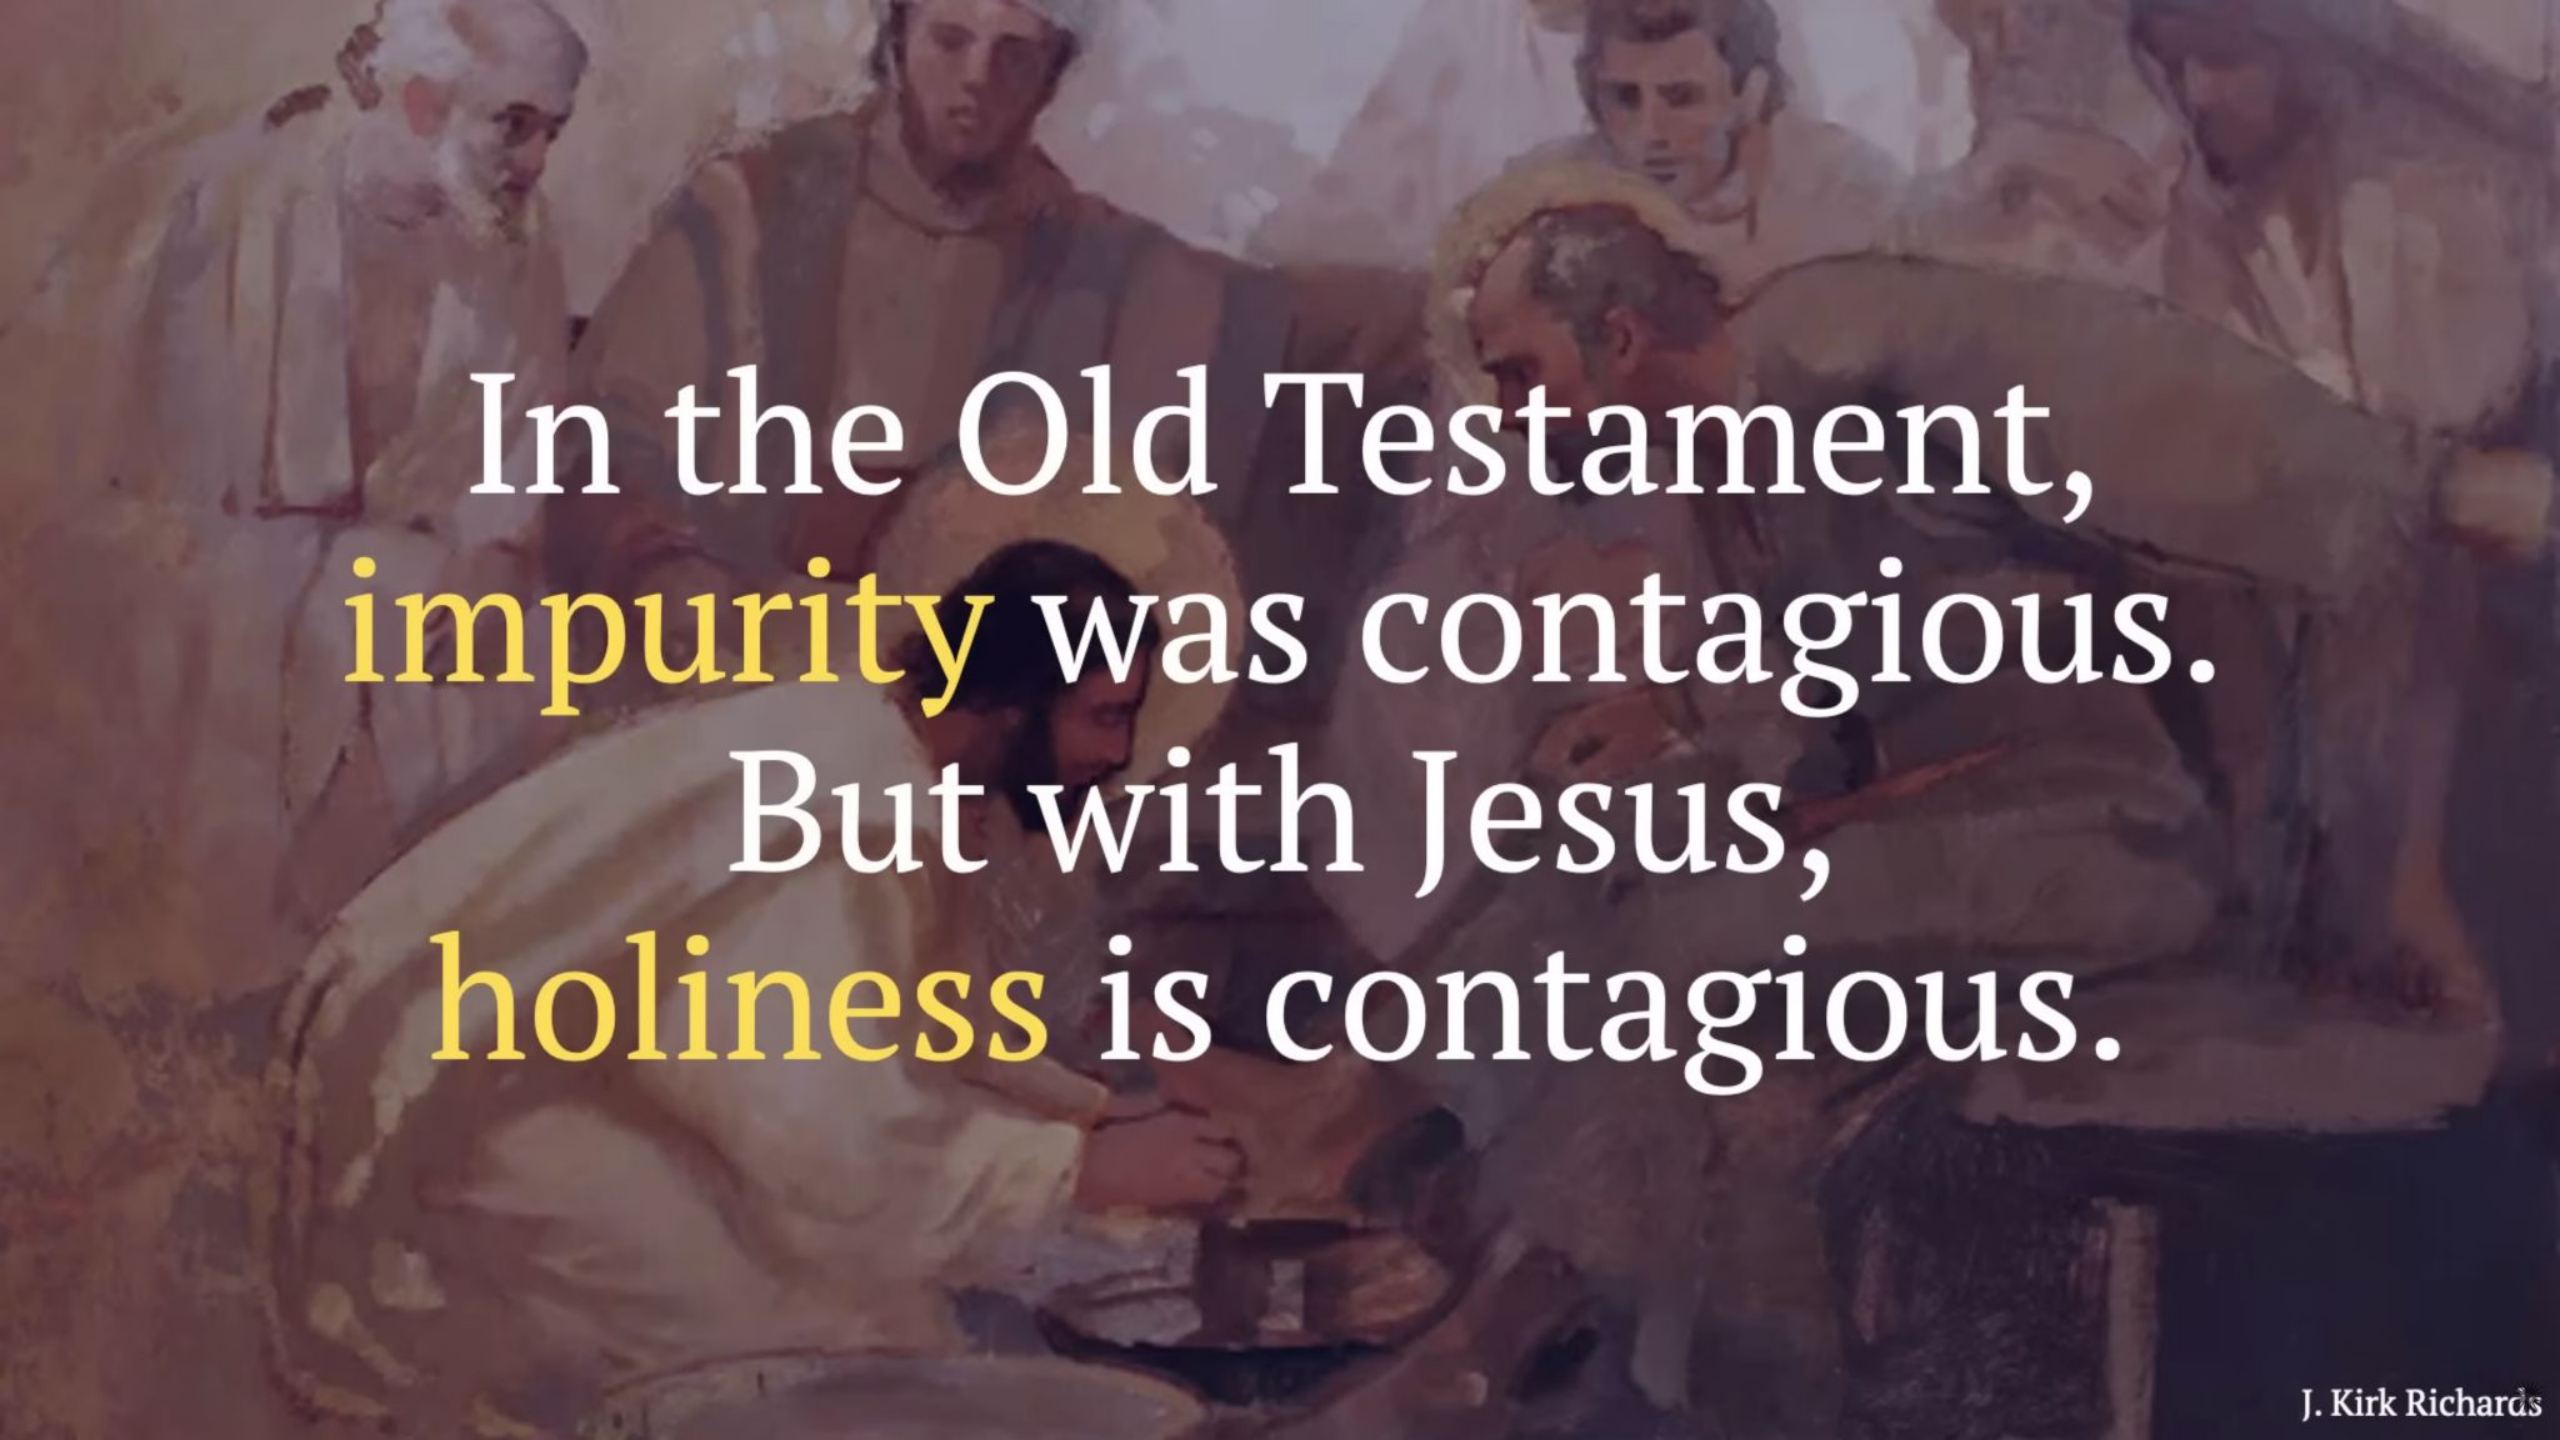

Mark 5:30, NIV

A close-up photograph of a woman with dark hair and a red headband, her eyes closed and face pressed against a man's hands. The man is wearing a light-colored, frayed-sleeved garment. They are surrounded by a crowd of people in traditional Middle Eastern attire, including robes and head coverings. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting an outdoor setting.

“Daughter,
your faith has healed you. Go in peace.”

Mark 5:34 NIV

A religious painting depicting Jesus washing the feet of his disciples. Jesus, with a halo, is seated and washing the foot of a disciple who is reclining. Other disciples are visible in the background, some looking on. The scene is set in a room with a mountain landscape visible through an opening in the background.

In the Old Testament, impurity was contagious.
But with Jesus,
holiness is contagious.

Christ's holiness brought cleansing, and at the same time, bad company corrupts
good character.

In your life,
how do you handle this tension?

holy [person] do?”
